Two thousand years ago, the seed had to decay in order to bud forth into hearty and vigorous new life. The Head of the nascent Church had to offer Himself up as a humble victim for the salvation of all. So it was that the Head offered Himself up to satisfy the inestimable owed to Divine Justice.

Today, it is the whole Mystical Body, which infestation by the demon of atheism has rendered as sterile as the accursed fig tree, that must be sowed in the ground like the grains of wheat to die and return to a new and fruitful divine life. This satisfies in full the unchangeable demands of My Justice and Mercy.

Truly, I tell you, unless you be born again, you will not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. The mystery of My Redemption is an act of infinite Mercy and Justice.

The Redemption is continuing, the Redemption is going on now. My Mercy demands that you be saved, My Justice demands that you, My living members, who are free and intelligent, able to choose between good and evil, and therefore responsible for your acts: that you satisfy your debts.

Do not worry, My son! My Mercy demands that everyone be warned, not only by interior calls, but by exterior calls as well.

Let everyone hear who wants to hear; but if anyone, blinded by arrogance and pride, wishes to perish with Satan, let him perish!

O, what blindness! What obstinacy! O, unbelieving and perverse generation, what more could I have done to keep you from the hour of darkness, the coming hour of death and blood?

What more could I have given you than I already have? I have given you My Love, My open Heart, the love of the one who is My Mother and yours. She has come to earth several times to shake you out of your torpor, to remind you of the great truths of the faith, and to show you the path to follow.

I will heal my Church

I will heal the peoples and the nations. I will heal my Church.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Éd. du Parvis, Suisse, 1992, pp. 109-110.

I called and called, over and over, but it was of no use; My divine promises were of no use; the so many apparitions of My Mother and yours on earth were of hardly any use; very few accepted them, and yet, they were appeals and warnings from My merciful Heart, from Me, the Only Son of the Father, God, like the Father and the Holy Spirit. They laughed at Me, they mocked Me, insulted Me in every way by their foolish unbelief; but they will see how terrible God's anger is! They will have asked for it! They will have brought it upon themselves! [...]

The time has come, My son, for the just, all the just, to become clearly aware of and clear minded about those things and events in our time which have implications for My Church, and with it, all of humanity.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 139.

...it is simply unacceptable and it makes absolutely no sense, purely rationally or in the light of faith, that the dark poison of the human heart should continue to perpetuate the existing absurd and paradoxical situation, wherein hate prevails over love, darkness prevails over light, and eternal damnation is preferred to eternal bliss.

Mankind will see the Power of the Lord, and they will be so mightily impressed that they will have to bow to this marvelous reality despite themselves, as was foretold: "In the end, the Merciful Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary will triumph."

Such is the marvelous reality of the renewed Church. That is why My Church will be so beautiful, more beautiful than it ever was before, because it will quiver with the life of the Divine Spirit, and it will therefore be almost wholly charismatic.

This is how My Reign upon the earth will come to be, My Reign, that had been prayed for, for so long, by so many. In other words, this will be My intermediate coming, as well as the perfect outcome of the great struggle and the greatest battle between the dark forces of Evil and the Powers of Light.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 343.

The Commandments of God Ignored

I am a Father afflicted by untimely mourning because I watch how more ready this world is to kill than to love; massive childmurdering initiations erupt daily. Everywhere My Eyes turn they see treachery, murders, corruption, adultery, fraud, disorder in marriage, people who sneer at religion, pollution of souls, perjury, sins against all nature; how then am I to keep silent? This is why Justice will overtake this lot. Here I am speaking openly like a Father, anxious but offended and afflicted. My Voice is groaning from the Heavens, hear Me: is there any upright man left among you?...

... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 59- 64, vol. 3, J .M. J. Publications, Northern Ireland, 1991, p. 21.

My Fire is imminent and, ah, so many of you will be unprepared because your era does not believe, they do not adore Me, they do not hope or love Me. Your generation has replaced The Truth and My commandments by blasphemies. Love is missing among you. You do not live a life of love, nor have you understood what "The Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Wisdom" means. If you fear Me, you are blessed; if you fear Me, you can attain perfection; if you fear Me, I will intoxicate you with My sweet Wine and fill you with My produce; if you fear Me, you will live in Peace; if you fear Me, Wisdom will come all the way to your doorstep; if you fear Me, you will obey fervently My Commandments not changing one stroke from them.

... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, J.M.J. Publications, Northern Ireland, 1990, p. 215.

Many of you today say: let us drink, let us eat today, tomorrow we shall be dead. Do not lie to yourselves. Come back to your senses and face Me your God. To obey My Law is to love Me and anyone who lives in love lives in Me. I do not need philosophers and sages of your age, neither masters, I need weakness... poverty... simplicity...see? The days are coming where I will put My Law on your hearts. I come in these days of Mercy to prepare the nations and to remind them that I can purify your inner self from vile and dead actions which can lead you into eternal fires. But this generation's heart has grown coarse and although I am talking openly to the nations they will still not listen to Me.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 218.

It is the hour of my great sorrow for humanity, so ill and so reduced to slavery by the Spirits of Evil.

The diabolical powers are ruling the earth and producing everywhere the wicked fruits of their dark reign. And thus this humanity has again become pagan, after almost two thousand years of its redemption and of the first announcement of the Gospel of salvation.

Faithlessness and impiety again cover it; sins wound it; evil poisons it; pride rules it; impurity seduces it; egoism and hatred enchain it; Satan reduces it more and more to slavery and reigns over it with his diabolical power.

This is the hour of my great sorrow for all this poor humanity, under the control of the Spirits of Evil, because the hour of its great chastisement has now come.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons". The Marian Movement of Priests, St. Francis, Maine, 14th Edition, 1993, p. 783.

Satan has made you slaves of pride and of haughtiness, with the deceptive illusion of bringing you to getting along without God, of putting your own selves in the place of God, so that in you he may be able to renew his act of rebellion and of defiance against the Lord. Thus he has spread everywhere the error of atheism and has driven humanity to build a new civilization without God.

He has made you slaves of pleasure and of impurity, to replace the true God with new idols, followed and adored today by many: sex, amusement, money, comfort. Thus sin has stretched out its tenebrous veil of coldness and of death over the world.

He has made you slaves of egoism and avarice, by leading you on in the consuming quest for your own affirmation, for superiority over others and you have become insensible to the great needs of the poor, the little ones, the sick, the needy. Thus the world has become a real desert for lack of love and, in this immense desert, how many of my children there are who, each day, become swept away, stricken down and defeated.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", pp. 577-578.

The sins of men have pierced the vault of the heavens. Men have forgotten God and their neighbour. Man was created to love. God is love. God has given his love to men so that they may hand it on to their brethren. But what have they done? They have turned themselves over to impurities, passions, hatreds, envies and bitterness. The situation the world is in is due to sin. God gave men the love of angels so they could respond with their love, but most have become rebellious angels who refuse to submit to God's laws. They say that they love their neighbour, that they are charitable, but they are living a lie that will prevent them from entering the Kingdom of Heaven. Look, daughter, at how they treasure the body but neglect to treasure the spirit. "Where your heart lies, there lies your treasure." No one who puts his treasure in the things of this world can obtain the treasure of Heaven. Men kill each other to pile up riches, but forget the greatest of all riches, eternity, which cannot be bought with earthly treasure, but only with sacrifice, penance and love.

You who are not with Christ, you worry, saying you accept Him although you do not follow His commandments. You store up things only for yourselves, but you are unable to pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar's or to share your riches with the poor.

... The Virgin Mary in "Apparitions et Messages à l'Escorial en Espagne (1987-92)", Résiac, France, 1992, p. 127.

Modern progress is the deadly weapon Satan is using to draw great numbers of souls away from the living springs of water, only to abandon them in the desert to die of thirst.

Those who should be warning the souls of the baptised against this grave danger have instead allowed themselves to be dazzled. Without offering any resistance, nor warning the flock about the very grave danger ahead, they have followed the Enemy, who has thus been able to distance both the flock and its pastors from the Light.

It seems superfluous for Me to have to prove this to you. Who can deny that the family today is desecrated and dislocated? Who cannot see that the school, once a sanctuary, has become an infernal den where, under the pretexts of evolution and progress, children are officially initiated to sin? Who does not see that the movies and television have become pulpits from which millions upon millions of students avidly absorb lessons in violence, crime and adultery?

From these pulpits, the poison of atheism is preached at all hours of the day and night by distorted reporting, films glorifying divorce and abortion, songs praising free love and sensuality. Immodesty is exalted and glorified through the presentation of scenes of nudity and immorality. The spreading of errors of every kind is daily greeted as a new gain of freedom. Men kill in the name of freedom, men corrupt in the name of freedom, men do the most criminal deeds in the name of freedom.

This is not to mention what goes on in residences, in private homes, in public places. Every kind of aberration, perversion and iniquity is committed there, as Satan lets loose all his hatred of human nature, degrading it, destroying in it all sense of modesty and dignity, trampling upon it and humiliating it in every way his base trickery can contrive.

And what of the press, another glory of progress? One more communications medium domesticated for the service of evil. What there is of good press is never very popular nor nearly so widely distributed as the bad press. Look at the newspapers: many are now at the service of atheism. This pseudo-progress (materially progressive but strikingly regressive morally and spiritually) has been accepted without any reaction, even though the Evil One is plain to see, proudly manipulating this medium to kill belief in God.

Not only has there been no reaction, but some have glorified what the press is doing, and a great many who ought to be uniting to form a barricade against this satanic onslaught have, instead, joined it. Thus, what I have taught by word and example is in complete contrast with the ways and principles of this sinful society.

Out of this has come, in an attempt to reconcile what cannot be reconciled, the frenetic zeal of so many of my ministers and pastors, who want to change and reform everything. That is why we have been deluged with innovations which, they say, should make it possible to serve two masters at the same time. They would like to meld light and darkness, make lawful what is unlawful, causing ever more scandal, discord and division in My Church.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Parvis, 1992, pp. 134-135.

The Law is in such a chaotic state that mankind has even lost the sense of right and wrong:

- faithless parents have lost all moral sensitivity and have no more christian conscience;
- blasphemy has become the ordinary thing;
- so has obscene language;
- the kind of quarrelling that often leads to violence and cruelty has become much more common;
- pornographic books and magazines are left around for even young children to read;
- language has become more and more coarse and trivial;
- marital infidelities are often accepted and consummated by mutual consent... In a great many families, the very idea of right and wrong has simply been wiped out...

All this is the result of a materialistic outlook which, under different but always pernicious and deadly forms, has penetrated the very structures of the Church, to such an extent that the priests, imbued with materialistic ideologies, behave as if they had become something else. Thus it is that, with the greatest of ease, they absolve everything and everyone. The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 224.

Never before in history has there been such a swell of opposition against God. Never before has any generation so clearly broken off all pacts with Heaven. Men seem determined to boldly tell God to go away; but make no mistake, nothing worthwhile or permanent can be done if God is not given His rightful place.

... The Virgin Mary in ("Kérizinen - Apparitions en Bretagne", Nouvelles Éditions Latines, 1968, p. 137).

The modern world finds it easy to say, "God and prayer were good in former times, but times have changed, and we should live according to our own time." So people search for money, pleasure and entertainment. Yes, times may have changed, but God, Who is Law and Judge, does not change. ... The Virgin Mary in Kérizinen...", p. 123.

How many souls go to hell through lack of humility, wishing to be first and glorified and admired like gods on earth. Never cease to pray and to atone for poor sinners...

... The Lord in "Apparitions et Messages à l'Escorial en Espagne (1987-1992)," p. 70.

Pride brings about in man an aversion to, a repugnance for, the things of God, and prayer. In particular, it stifles all growth in the interior life of grace, darkening the spirit and weakening the will, leading to the enfeeblement of the soul, which then sinks little by little into a ruinous detachment from God, and, at the same time, a growing attachment to the goods of this world and the pleasures of the flesh. And, one day, the soul finds itself in the powerful grip of a purely materialistic view of life.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus..." , p. 19.

" Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your strength and love your neighbor as you love yourself "

Not many people, even among Christians, have respect for the Lord... One need only think of the flood of blasphemies uttered, often deliberately, or expressly taught and even paid for and rewarded!

Speaking with you at another time, I said that men have made gods of everything except God Himself: money, the most sordid passions, science, everything. Son, if that is not chaotic, what is?

To take another example: "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day." Look at how it is kept holy today! To avoid the worst, they have invented Saturday Mass... Sunday: Dies Domini. The Lord's Day, the day when we commemorate the Resurrection.

But these last generations no longer value the Spirit, Faith and Fidelity to God, the Alpha and Omega of everything and everyone. Matter must replace God. Whatever the cost, matter must prevail over the Spirit... That is why, on Sundays, the arenas are filled to capacity, the beaches and mountains are as crowded as the cities. People must enjoy themselves, not rest, but enjoy themselves at all costs!

God gave man the Sabbath so that he may rest and, putting aside daily cares, not forget his dignity as the son of God nor his destiny of eternal happiness, and give honour to God by sanctifying himself through rest and prayer.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus..." , p. 219.

My Heart is extremely afflicted to see the untold numbers bowing down and prostrating themselves before the lords of this world, on the one hand, and on the other the paltry number of my children kneeling before, adoring and supplicating God, Lord of Heaven and King of the universe.

... The Virgin Mary in "Marie pourquoi pleures-tu? Faits et messages de Naju-Corée du sud" de R. Spies et L. Couëtte, Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1991, p. 110.

Feet that should be running to adore God are instead running to do evil. Lips that ought to be used to bless and praise the Son of God are being used instead to blaspheme and murmur against God.

... The Virgin Mary in "Marie pourquoi pleures-tu ?..." , p. 65.

The Savior said to me one day: "Swearing is like a poisoned arrow which wounds My Heart." ... The Lord in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Sister Marie-Nathalie, Éditions du Parvis, 1990, p. 81.

In these times, how many communions are made and how many sacrileges perpetrated! It can be said that there is no longer any eucharistic celebration where sacrilegious communions are not made. If you only saw with my eyes how great this wound is which has contaminated the whole Church and paralyzes it, halts it, and makes it impure and so very sick! If you only saw with my eyes, you too would shed copious tears with me.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons" , p. 512.

Not everyone who says to me, "Lord, Lord", will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but those who heed my words, "I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me water, I was naked and you clothed me, I was in prison and you paid me a visit, I was sick and you came to see me." This is my work of love and mercy. Go beyond mere words, reach out your hands to the suffering, console those who need it.

Mankind will not be saved through lip service. Those who think that they can pick and choose only what suits them out of the Gospel are badly mistaken. When those who claim to love God but do not care about their neighbour come to the eternal abode, I will say to them, "I do not know you: your lips moved, but your hearts remained unmoved." ... The Lord at the Escorial in Spain, p. 143.

Be charitable with everyone, my children. Some think they do no one any harm, but they do no one any good, either, and I will put all who do nothing good for souls on my left and send them into everlasting fire.

... The Lord at the Escorial in Spain, p.72.

In the eyes of my Heavenly Father, a human lifetime spent without taking part in the salvation of souls is like a blank page. ... The Lord in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Sister Marie-Nathalie, Parvis, 1990, p. 88.

This humanity lies prostrate beneath the heavy yoke of violence, hatred, unbridled egoism, division and war. How many people suffer, how many are trampled upon and are oppressed and killed each day, because of this so great incapacity to love! Thus the world has been reduced to an immense desert and the hearts of men have become cold and cruel, insensitive and closed to the needs of the little ones, of the poor and of the destitute.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 760.

A great many souls remain deaf and blind to the Gospel truths. They ignore my appeals for prayer and penance. Their hearts are chilled and hard, like blocks of ice! They want peace, but peace in their mouths is an empty word. There will be no peace if they themselves do not join in building unity and love. Peace will come only if men love each other, not if they hate each other to death.

... The Virgin Mary at the Escorial, pp. 90-91.

"Respect your father and your mother"

Why are so many of you surprised that so few follow this commandment? Foolish and wicked notions led these children astray into worshipping empty productions, filling their spirit from early childhood with a spirit of sluggishness. Many parents have not given their children that everflowing Source of My Spirit. Wisdom was calling them day and night, but this generation barred Her out, and every day that passed, your children strayed further and further from the Path leading to Me. If any one, young or old, acknowledges Me as their God, they would reflect My Image, and out of love, would obey and honour their parents as they would be obeying and honouring Me. But all things that are conformed to the world have depraved these children from coming to Me, love is missing. Many parents are complaining of their children's disobedience while they are doing exactly the same thing to Me. Why? Can they really claim to have abundant goodness, patience and toleration? Had they really all these virtues, their children too would have the virtue of obedience and would honour them both, but I tell you, this generation's minds are empty and so Darkness came and filled them up, for the image of becoming a philosopher is more important in their eyes than My Eternal Glory.

Then, their lack of holiness is consumed by passion and from early youth go out and dishonour their own bodies. Your generation has flouted My Commandments and replaced Them with blasphemous imitations, and to this day out of the beast's mouth come out evil productions to darken your children's minds and draw them as victims right into the lion's mouth, conquering their young mind to worship the first beast and serve man-made gods, giving them the honour and respect that was meant for Me and thus reflect this virtue on their parents. I am telling you truly: for the unsubmissive who refused to take My Commandments for their guide and took depravity instead, there will be fire in the end for them. ... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, pp. 210-211.

Look at the youth. Parents are not concerned about the souls of the young, they only take care of their bodies. Satan makes them fall into the vices of the flesh, drugs and alcohol, leading them down the path of damnation...

(p. 90)

As for the youth, Oh! my daughter, pray for the young whose hearts are hardened by vice. Satan makes them blind and deaf to the word of God. He makes them imagine that only the body is made for happiness. Their ears must be opened to the word of God, but men block their ears, they block them up tight against the Gospel. They do not want to hear it. They take what they like. Poor youth, dragged down into the vices and pleasures of this world!

(p. 101)

My Heart has been pierced with a lance. Youth is losing its way on a road of no return.

(p. 130)

... The Virgin Mary at the Escorial in Spain.

Mixed groups of boys and girls who, because of too much freedom, indecent styles and the pernicious influence of erotic books and films, are unable to control themselves, may wear the label of Christians, but they are pagans in fact. ... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 206.

Tell Me, son, do you think the views of so-called Christian parents on the training and education of their children are right? After making puppets of them, they have idolized them and, finally, have made them into arrogant tyrants.

One must never deny one's children anything. From earliest infancy, every whim must be satisfied, every wish granted. And so, day by day, the demands grow. They must be allowed to do, say or experiment with whatever they wish. Now you have children in elementary school on drugs.

They were never asked to deny themselves or to make any sacrifice. Is it any wonder that these budding lives are already in thrall to vice?

Many of these children's parents consider themselves good Christians. They confess their sins from time to time, and My priests, in their easy-going, good-natured way, absolve them. And the bishops sleep on.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", pp. 304-305.

With mankind in a critical state, it was inevitable that the family, in the process of falling apart, should also be in a state of crisis. Society's idea of the family today is contrary to God's will, and it is intended to be so. This becomes very clear when one sees that divorce and abortion are recognized and accepted by all christian nations.

But I was speaking about the family in the process of falling apart. Why is this happening? Just look at what a devilish plan has been used to remove spirituality from today's family: spiritual laxity has brought about a neglect of prayer, especially community prayer, for several generations.

Life, to be maintained, must be fed. The life of grace itself will die if it is not fed. This is what has happened to nearly all Christian families. Once the spiritual life was dead, sin entered. Marriage itself is much too often seen as a means of pleasure... sins and crimes against childbearing...

This is all it takes to let the forces of evil in to do their vile work. Then... the press, movies and television do the rest. ... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 220.

"You shall not kill"

Do you know who my new torturers are? They are those who, under humanitarian and libertarian pretexts, deliberately suppress human lives barely begun in their mother's womb...

This is the greatest crime of all time. By killing these innocent children, they crucify their God once more.

All these little souls are in My Love, but their torturers will pay dearly.

The sorrow of God is great, and so is His anger.... From the moment of conception, each child has a soul. Already, the child is a "will to love" from God. Already, the child forms part of the mystery of mankind. By deliberately killing a child, man breaks God's "will to love", and that is a very grave thing.

... The Lord in "Viens Esprit Saint !", Lucie, Éd. Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1992, p. 157.

Induced abortion is a very grave fault concocted by Satan, because it transgresses My Father's law, which is a law of love, which tends to preserve, defend and protect the priceless gift of life.

What man has the right to take another person's life? What country can assume the right to upset the balance of human existence? What state can presume to have the right to abrogate divine law? To claim to do so is such a grave crime that God cannot leave it unpunished.

Abortion is an abomination and a perversion. It is the fruit of a corrupt and anti-Christian society.

Woe to those whose consciences are burdened with such a terrible responsibility!

Not only will I be an inexorable Judge, but it will be the human victims of abortion who will address themselves directly to My Father, the Author of life, to demand justice against their actual torturers or those morally responsible.

My son, the legalization of abortion is one product of a materialistic counter-civilization; but how many more there are: violence, crime, drugs, pornography, organized corruption, secretly intended and financed, although publicly deplored.

I repeat, if I were to show you the real face of this unbelieving society, you would die.

Humanity has refused the salvation offered it by My Mercy. I will save it by My Justice.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 137.

"Do not commit acts of impurity"

...But there is complete chaos in this matter. There are no more barriers. Evil is spreading like a river overflowing its banks and has completely contaminated human society. Only those souls whose faith is alive and active have remained untainted.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 223.

Humanity has not accepted my urging and has continued to disobey the sixth commandment of the law of the Lord which prescribes that one shall not commit impure acts.

On the contrary, it has sought to exalt such a transgression and to put it forward as the acquisition of a human value and a new way of exercising one's own personal freedom. Thus today it has reached the point of legitimating as good all the sins of impurity. It has begun to corrupt the consciences of little children and of youth, bringing them to the conviction that impure acts committed by oneself are no longer sins; that relations before marriage between those engaged is licit and good; that families may behave as they please and may make use of the various means of birth control. And they have come to the justification and the exaltation of impure acts against nature and even to the proposing of laws which put homosexual cohabitation on a par with marriage.

Never as today have immorality, impurity and obscenity been so continually propagandized, through the press and all the means of social communication. Above all, television has become the perverse instrument of a daily bombardment with obscene images, directed to corrupt the purity of the mind and the heart of all. The places of entertainment, in particular the cinema and the discotheques, have become places of public profanation of one's human and christian dignity. ...The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's ...", pp. 664-665.

"You will not steal"

In fact, all business carried on in the world today is riddled with fraud, and even those who consider themselves good and honest have no qualms about regularly doing things that are fraudulent; after all,

"everybody's doing it", as the saying goes. But the fact that this evil has become so widespread that it is now the general thing hardly justifies it! Rather, it is even greater cause for blame.

Repeated fraud is a sin against justice, a sin which by its nature requires the return of the ill-gotten gains, in reparation of the wrong done, and anyone who does not return them is in grave danger of jeopardizing his eternal salvation. (p. 223)

To separate religious and social problems and duties from other personal duties is simply absurd. Equally absurd is the saying: "You only live once", if it is said to justify something that is plainly unlawful.

The sons of darkness are not that illogical, but the sons of light are.

This is how souls become isolated from God, and take on a hard shell of amorality, like a clam, hard to convert.

How can one pretend to form helpers with corpses or with chronic anaemics, so sick that they can no longer make the least movement?

As I clearly said, no one can serve two masters whose interests and objectives are opposed. Either God or Satan! The human soul is free, I say, not just every day, but at every moment, to choose for itself. One thinks something good, or one thinks something evil. One does something good, or one does something bad. (pp. 204-205).

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...".

"You shall not covet your neighbor's goods"

From Heaven I have commanded you not to covet your neighbor's goods nor your neighbor's wife, from laity to priests this Commandment has not been kept either. I have revealed My Love for every creature on earth with My Sacrifice and through this Sacrifice gave you eternal life and My Message of Love. Many of you preach love, forgiveness, humility, tolerance, holiness, over and over again, yet to this day many of you are ready to kill because you do not get what you want. You keep on throwing venomous arrows on each other because you do not have what I have given your neighbor. From the time of My Abel to this day this sin is constantly repeated. The first man to covet his brother's goods was Cain, but how many more Cains are there today? and how many more Esaus? Motivated by convenience and nothing else, he gave up his birthright, falling into apostasy. Why not follow Abel's example and be holy? To love is to live holy and according to My Commandments.

You have an ambition you cannot satisfy, so either you ignore your neighbour's happiness to dissatisfy him, or you go out and are ready to kill. I tell you truly if at heart you have the bitterness of jealousy, or a selfseeking ambition, never make any claims for yourself or cover up the Truth with lies for wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, hypocrisy and tepidness.

Man are calling out for a stop to pollution. They are crying out because they fear for their bodies. But who still dares to cry out for a stop to the pollution of souls? And yet, I say it again, it is better to enter Heaven blind than to go to Hell with two good eyes.

You do not believe what you see, and yet I tell you, men's souls are in greater danger than their bodies. Bodies may be full of gangrene, but how many souls are already in a state of decomposition! And still no one does anything. You can see the body, but if you could only see the soul.

There is an unwillingness to recognize sin as an evil; on the contrary, it is openly justified and exalted as a good. People no longer go to confession. Men have been given intelligence, will and freedom. What have they done with them, other than to create chaos as only they can do it, worse than the chaos of the Tower of Babel! Disorder in their physical life, spiritual and moral disorder, personal and family disorder, social disorder, world disorder...

Son, even the blind are aware of this state of affairs, which was brought about with diabolical stubbornness by the men of this perverse generation.

There is disorder even in the Church, disorder in the lives of many of my priests! [...]

Son, what will be the consequences of this unheard of disorder, disorder so great that all the evils of times past cannot compare with it?

A cataclysm proportionate to the causes that will have brought it about.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 141.

At the present time, Satan, who is darkness itself, does not see things as they really are. He is convinced that victory is his. That is why he will not release his prey, humanity contaminated by his twin evils of pride and presumption, without a dramatic display of horrible convulsions.

[...] The battle now going on is the greatest battle since the one fought by St Michael and his army against the powerful rebel angels.

Many great battles have been waged over the ages, but none compare with the present battle, which involves all the nations and peoples on earth. (p. 40)

As I have told you, My son, the hour of darkness is at hand, and mankind will be caught up in the most terrible struggle unleashed onto the world by Hell. The forces of evil will do everything in their power to ensure victory, which they are convinced is already theirs.

Many, even among my consecrated servants and among the very successors of the Apostles, are unaware that Satan, with his legions, has, ever since the fall of Adam and Eve, always wished for and coveted this hour, and pursued it by every means at his disposal. He sees this battle as a sure revenge against God, against Me, the Redeemer, against the Church, the fruit of My Redemption, against Me and My Church because I tore humanity away from him, when it had become his slave. (pp. 281-282)

If today's atheistic humanity does not stand up and shake off the dust and smoke beclouding its soul, the greater part of it will perish.

The ruin which mankind is foolishly bringing upon itself cannot be averted by the sarcasms or ironies of pseudo-theologians or of unconcerned and arrogant priests, nor by the stratagems of those who control corruption in all sectors of public and private life.

Shout it out, that God will not be mocked! Shout it out, that the hour of darkness is not willed by God, but by mankind itself. Shout it out, that My Mother has done so much to keep mankind away from this catastrophe!

Remind everyone that the apparitions at Lourdes, Fatima and thousands of other places have often been smothered by the very persons whose duty it was to judge these events with the greatest objectivity and without deference to public opinion. Know that the fire devastating the world, the fire of Satan, is burning with My Father's permission. This fire is necessary so that the good may be separated from the bad, and so that the good, having been tested, refined and purified by fire, may become even better. Tell that to all my children!

The devil is gaining ground or, rather, it will seem that he has won the victory, but just when he imagines he is triumphant, God, with mighty power, will smash him to pieces. I am the Master of the world. It will recover when I save it, and I am already preparing for my victory.

... The Lord in "Dieu et les hommes", Soeur Beghe, Éditions Résiac, France, 1992, p. 85.

In fact, at the very moment when Satan will be enthroned as lord of the world and will think himself now the sure victor, I Myself will snatch the prey from his hands. Once again, it is the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, Queen of the Apostles and Queen of Victory who will conquer, thereby atoning for the failure of my ministers and Pastors to act, and She will crush the head of the poisonous serpent for the second time.

To Priests and Pastors

Listen carefully: you preach against killing, yet you kill My Spirit. You boast about the Law then disobey it because you have not understood the mystery of My hidden Manna. No, you have not yet understood My miraculous feedings, nor the mystery of My Transfiguration. I have promised you to keep you alive in the end of Times with My Celestial Manna.
... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, p. 211.

How absurd, My Son, is the hard-headed obstinacy of those priests and Pastors who have not only failed to listen to the voice of the Heavenly Mother, but have done and continue to do everything possible to prevent Her from being heard and averting the catastrophe.

What incredible pride, to pass judgment on the behaviour of God and His Mother!

How incredible that any man, whether a lay-person or a consecrated minister, should presume to set limits and boundaries not only on God's behaviour, but even on His Will!

How incredible that man, who is a mystery even to himself, should presume to probe the mysteries of God, and of My Immaculate Heart, while faced with the evils of humanity and Christianity, both of which are practically atheistic.

... The Virgin Mary in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 76.

If God is more and more forgotten, it is because the voices from Heaven are being stifled, voices granted as a remedy for your times against modern progressivism and materialism.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérizinen - Apparitions en Bretagne", Nouvelles Éditions Latines, 1968, p. 171.

What most saddens my Merciful Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Mother and yours is that love should be rejected, that the Light should be shut out, that God should be opposed and that everything should be done to thwart His plan of salvation.

The words, "Da mihi virtutem contra hostes tuos", are a lie on the lips of many. A lie, indeed, that reveals the abyss into which men have fallen by ignoring the calls (there were so many!) intended to allow humanity to avoid the most terrible misfortune in history. But the enemy will not prevail! My Mercy, which is never separate from my Justice, will triumph. Furthermore, your Mother and Mine will triumph. She will dispel the darkness that has fallen over the earth, so that goodness and justice may be returned to mankind.

My Church will be purified and rejuvenated. She will take her rightful place in the world, and the nations and peoples will recognize her as the Matron and Guide of the great family of all God's children.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 54.

Doctors of the Law, many have admired you, but you have scandalized many others. You were admired as true imitators of Christ, true bearers of the Gospel, but comfort, money and honours have changed your lives, and you have caused many souls to fall into the abyss. You do not allow the voices of my messengers to be heard. You laugh at them, slander them and libel them, thereby showing your lack of love for the Church, your lack of submission and your arrogance, which blind you to the true state of the world.

... The Virgin Mary in "Apparitions et Messages à l'Escorial ...", p. 50.

It is I Who, on Judgement Day, will assess the responsibility of My priests and bishops, both as individuals and as a group. There is no escaping God's judgement, now or ever. Heavy responsibilities lie on the consciences of many Pastors and priests. I recall the very grave omissions to set up barriers against the forces of evil, which ought not only to be stopped, but actively opposed by every means which I, Jesus, and my Mother have so insistently taught you, such as humility, prayer and penance!

Again I repeat that they have seriously distorted the rule of Christian life: life is a trial, life is a struggle against the dark forces of Hell and its snares. To twist this fact is to give a twisted view of Christianity and of Redemption and to dilute their true meaning.

Yes, My son, it would be much better and wiser not to rebel, but to humbly repent for the errors committed.

(p. 195)

It is not you who must follow the times, but the times which should adapt to you. What a responsibility to have abandoned the struggle! If you are a bishop or a priest, it is precisely because of this struggle. Without the struggle, you would have no reason for being what you are. Many are unaware of this.

(p. 38)

For many priests, the sixth and ninth commandments no longer matter. To hold this opinion is the epitome of pride, for it is to put oneself in the place of God, to not believe in Him, to not believe that He is all-powerful, all-knowing and everywhere present.

Satan continually induces priests to repeat his sins of pride and disobedience. He has found faithful allies in my Church, inducing them to become his collaborators in dismantling Her. Are Satan and his collaborators unaware of my unchanging Words, "I am with you until the end of time, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against My Church?"

My Church will be purified, My Church will be freed! My Love for her demands it, justice demands it, My Mercy demands it. This is not clearly understood.

(p. 189)

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...".

Because so many priests have abandoned their trust, how many of my children are now suffering from a true spiritual famine of the word God.

The truths which are most important for your life today are no longer preached: Heaven which awaits you; the Cross of My Son which saves you; sin which wounds the Heart of Jesus and Mine; Hell into which innumerable souls are falling every day; the urgent necessity of prayer and penance.

The more sin spreads like a pestilence and causes the death of souls, the less it is talked about. Today some of my priests even deny its existence.

It is my duty as a Mother to give nourishment to the souls of my children; if the voice of the ministers is stilled, the heart of their Mother will open up more and more.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 107.

Because of their superior nature, they (the devils) have, by evil tenacity, managed to obliterate practically all notion of their existence in men's minds. Thus, since nearly all men no longer believe in devils, they have abandoned the struggle for which I, the Word of God, died on the Cross.

This is the real reason for the Church's decline and for the grave crisis of faith that is tormenting bishops, priests and faithful alike.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 32.

Even among my chosen ones, how great is the number of those who doubt or who no longer believe. If you only saw with my eyes how vast this spiritual epidemic is which has struck the entire Church: it brings its apostolic action to a halt, wounds it and paralyzes its vitality, often even making its effort at evangelization empty and ineffective.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 454.

Priests should be living hosts who give themselves, who sacrifice themselves for the salvation of their brothers.

It is a serious sin to think that souls can be saved merely by using one's own human intelligence and activities. All external activity of a priest which is devoid of faith, love, suffering and prayer is worthless and vain.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 156.

It is not your pastoral plans and your discussions, it is not the human means on which you put reliance and so much assurance, but it is only Jesus in the Eucharist which will give to the whole Church the strength of a complete renewal, which will lead her to be poor, evangelical, chaste, stripped of all those supports on which she relies, holy, beautiful and without spot or wrinkle, in imitation of your heavenly Mother.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 512.

- But Jesus, there are many Pastors and Priests who are truly zealous.

- No, son! There are indeed some saintly pastors and priests, but I assure you once more, there are not many!

There are pastors and priests who are feverishly energetic, because they have been tainted by the heresy of activism. I do not judge by appearances, but by objective reality, known to Me alone.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 165.

For a very great number of priests, only social problems are important, and they take priority over all others. And this is where the priest changes the whole idea of what the priesthood is, of what it means to "be a priest."

A priest is an "alter Christus", and Christ, as Priest, came to save souls from the tyranny of Hell. That is why the mission of the priest is not a political one or a mission for workers' rights, but a religious one, entirely directed toward the spiritual good of souls alone.

Many priests have deserted; many have taken a wrong road; many are paralyzed in their priestly life, because the ways of the world into which they have plunged have made them lose sight of the real reason for their priesthood and vocation. All of this is because, at some time in their lives, the flow of grace which is the fruit of a lively and active faith and of sincere piety, that is, of an interior life, dried up. Once this spring dries up, all the tangents and breakdowns of the priestly life become understandable.

(pp. 224-225).

The proliferation of unsound theories of certain theologians, more focussed on themselves than on the truth, has increased the confusion in My Church. The damage caused to souls cannot be assessed by the human mind. Only I, the Eternal Judge, can understand its gravity, can measure its extent, can evaluate the responsibility for it and the consequences of it. These theologians have trampled on God. They have transfigured My mystical Body. They have profaned My Blood. They have put many souls on the road to damnation. As Satan's servants and fellow workers, they have raised their proud heads against My Vicar, repeating the cry of the devil, "Non serviam".

If these serpents do not become converted, they will perish in the flames of Hell, that very Hell in which they refuse to believe.

(p. 264).

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus ...".

The splendor of the Church is also darkened by the profound division which has entered into its interior and which is growing greater every day. And so you must bear witness to this unity, with a strong commitment of union with the Pope and with the bishops united to him. Do not follow those bishops who oppose the Pope. Make of yourselves courageous defenders of the Pope and denounce openly those who are opposed to his Magisterium and who teach in a manner contrary to it.

Men are proud of their civilization. They glory in it. But what is this civilization? They are convinced, or pretend to be, that they have created a second Paradise on Earth. They think, and how could it be otherwise, that they are only an arm's length away from the happiness they are so avid for and are looking for everywhere with such feverish anxiety.

They try to find it in the pleasures of the flesh. And so you have this bewildering, obsessive and fanatical glorification of sensuality and pornography, organized and legalized vice, involving enormous financial resources beyond all imagination. What do black masses cost their occult organizers? They look for happiness in the pleasures of the table, in the possession of wealth, in the search for honours, in scientific discoveries, in degenerate art, debased by the lack of faith and the outpouring of nauseating sentiments.

But they are starting to see, and vainly trying to hide it from themselves (that is why I said "pretend"), that happiness, which they are so hotly anxious to obtain, is not found in these things... Does this mean that materialism is a failure?

Yes, son, materialism is a total failure, but human pride will never admit it. It will be swept away and reduced to ashes - these words should be taken literally - but they will never admit it. The era of purification will sweep away all this trash, even the very memory of it. In another twenty years or so, My son, you will not hear a word about it.

You have entered into my times. On this day, I am asking you to consecrate to me all the time that still separates you from the end of this century of yours.

It is a period of ten years. These are ten very important years. These are ten decisive years. I am asking you to spend them with me because you are entering into the final period of the second Advent, which will lead you to the triumph of my Immaculate Heart in the glorious coming of my Son Jesus.

In this period of ten years there will come to completion that fullness of time which was pointed out to you by me, beginning with La Salette all the way to my most recent and present apparitions.

In this period of ten years there will come to its culmination that purification which, for a number of years now, you have been living through and therefore the sufferings will become greater for all.

In this period of ten years there will come to completion the time of the great tribulation, which has been foretold to you in Holy Scripture, before the second coming of Jesus.

In this period of ten years the mystery of iniquity, prepared for by the ever increasing spread of apostasy, will become manifest.

In this period of ten years all the secrets which I have revealed to some of my children will come to pass and all the events which have been foretold to you by me will take place.

"God is angry with the world. People must become converted and pray. My message is for all the people in God's Church. The people have ten years to become converted and pray; if they do not, this is what will happen."

They then had the third biblical vision: the brook the boys were facing became a river, and the handrail became a dam. On their left, where the people were standing, a village of huts appeared and, beyond it, men were building a three-decker boat which the boys recognized as Noah's ark. [...] To the far left of the children was a church. People were removing the furnishings from the church and making doors and chariots with them. The people were laughing at Noah.

Other people were busy raising the level of the dam, for which stones were being hauled in rough carts. [...] Many animals, large and small, were entering the Ark by way of a side ramp. It seemed that there were a couple from each species: elephants, hippopotamuses, even chickens. A man on horseback was pulling a giraffe by a rope, while another was pushing it from behind.

The wind rose and the rain began to fall. People were still trying to raise the level of the dam. All the animals were now in the Ark, the smaller ones on the upper deck and the larger ones on the lower decks. Noah and his wife, two other couples and two teen-agers were standing in the middle. When Noah had drawn up the ramp, he went to the stern of the Ark to look at the dam. A crack appeared in it and it burst. The water struck the Ark and threw it into the air, but then the Ark came to rest upon the water. The people who had stayed in the village were swept away by the water. Other people were screaming and trying to climb a mountain, but the water continued to rise, covering the mountain, and everyone was drowned.

My beloved daughter, listen carefully to what I am going to tell you, and go tell your Superior.

As I have told you before, if men do not repent and mend their ways, the Father will inflict a terrible chastisement on all mankind. It will be the worst there has ever been, even worse than the Flood. Fire will fall from the sky and wipe out a great part of the human race, both the good and the bad, sparing neither priests nor faithful. The survivors will be left in such desolation that they will envy the dead. The only arms left will be the Rosary and the Sign left by the Son. Recite the prayers of the Rosary every day. Pray the Rosary for the Pope, the bishops, and the priests.

The devil will even infiltrate the Church, so that cardinals will be seen opposing cardinals, bishops opposing bishops. Priests who venerate Me will be despised and opposed by their brother priests. Churches and altars will be desecrated. The Church will be full of those who agree to compromise, and the devil will entice many priests and consecrated persons to leave the Lord's vineyard.

The devil is especially bent on attacking those souls who are consecrated to God. It is the prospect of losing many souls that makes Me sad. If they keep committing more sins, and more grievous sins, there will be no forgiving them. [...] Pray the Rosary often. I am the only one who can still save you from the calamities that are coming. Those who put their trust in Me will be saved.

My Heart is bleeding. My heart is transfixed with deep wounds. My heart is immersed in a sea of sorrow. You live unconscious of the fate which is awaiting you. You are spending your days in a state of unawareness, of indifference and of complete incredulity. How is this possible when I, in so many ways and with extraordinary signs, have warned you of the danger into which you are running and have foretold you of the bloody ordeal which is just about to take place ?

Because this humanity has not accepted my repeated call to conversion, to repentance, and to a return to God, there is about to fall upon it the greatest chastisement which the history of mankind has ever known. It is a chastisement much greater than that of the flood. Fire will fall from heaven and a great part of humanity will be destroyed.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 14th Edition, pp. 514-515.

I now announce to you that the time of the great trial has come, because during these years all that I have foretold to you will come to pass. The apostasy and the great schism in the Church is on the point of taking place and the great chastisement, about which I foretold you in this place (Akita, Japan), is now at the very doors. Fire will come down from heaven and a great part of humanity will be destroyed. Those who will survive will envy the dead, because everywhere there will be desolation, death and ruin.

... Jeremiah (23, 29).

God is awesome in His anger. Woe to those who defy God's anger, relying on the convenient notion that God is only Love and Mercy.

Many of the damned would like to be able to retrace their steps and change their ideas, now that they clearly see and understand what a wily deceiver Satan is, and how ferociously wicked.

There is such a thing as a permissive will, and this explains very well how the Lord shows His Displeasure with His unfaithful people: wars, revolutions, epidemics, earthquakes and numberless other calamities come from the devil, but God permits them for His providential and wise purposes.

The seventy years of slavery in Babylon were allowed because of the displeasure roused by the sins of the Hebrew people. The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah did not come from God. Evil never comes from God, but always and only from hell, with the complicity of immoral human actions. The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and so many other chastisements were punishments that God allowed to happen so that men might mend their ways, but He did not bring them about. Even the Great Flood was the work of hell, aided by corrupt humanity.

Men say they do not fear God. This is a terrible blasphemy, for which terrifying consequences may be expected in this life and in the hereafter, just as in times past.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1992, pp. 16-17.

My mother has warned you that the number of souls who go to hell is very great. Can I, then, who am infinite Love, allow more and frighteningly more souls, whom I redeemed at an infinite price of suffering, to go on damning themselves?

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 22.

I cannot allow souls to be continually falling into Hell. I cannot be content to do nothing when, for a great many souls, My infinite sufferings have become useless, My Blood has become useless, even My death has become useless.

My infinite Mercy calls for a time of justice against the injustice perpetrated by that murderer and thief, Satan, with the free cooperation of persons who deliberately work for the loss of souls whom I love from all eternity.

What the Eternal Father Has to Say:

In My House once, integrity lived there, since My Law was their daily bread, but look at what My House has become now, a desolation, a haunt for the lizard and the spider! Ah...but I will undo all this. My Heart is broken within Me, My child, and My angels dread and tremble for the Hour I reserved to break out when My orders will be given. I cannot endure any more to see your Holy Mother's Tears shed over and over again every time My Son is recrucified. Your generation's sins are leading My Son to Calvary every moment. Together in one voice the world is blaspheming My Holy Spirit and all the powers of heaven. Daily, the world is provoking Me. Look! Look what has become of the great Lord's House? they say, while tearing It down and dissembling. Then, My Soul cannot bear any longer the groans of My Son being recrucified. Although both My Son and your Holy Mother muffle as best they could their pain, My Ears hear everything. My ears and My Eyes are not human and nothing escapes Me. Since it is your generation that makes the choice¹, not I, the Rebellion in My House will bring down on you My wrath and the deepest Darkness is wrought on earth soon. It is not My choice but yours. I had chosen to lift you from your graves with Mercy and Love, Compassion and Peace, but look how so many of you are unmoved by My offer. Nothing can touch you any longer. My Patience you have exhausted...

[...] This earth that you know will vanish soon. I have decided to hasten My Plan because of the great sins your generation conceives. All will vanish, all will wear out like a garment. This will be My way of destroying the defilement of sin, and you will realize that from the beginning you were My sacred temples and that My Spirit was living in you. Ah! For this Baptism by Fire! Pray and fast in these last days. I Am is near you.

¹ That is, instead of choosing God's Peace, we choose to pass into the new era by God's Chastisement.

Son, if I were to let you see what a terrible share of responsibility rests on the shoulders of consecrated persons for this work of ruination, massacre and destruction of souls, in connivance with the forces of Hell, you would not survive for one instant.

I want everyone to know that, because moral and spiritual evil persist in My Church, even the pleas of My Mother and the sufferings of victim souls, efficacious as they may be, will not be able to put off the hour of purification to a later time.

The salvation of souls is a thing so great that it must be preferred above everything else. God sees what you are unable to see.

God's Mercy, and His Patience, are much greater than anything you can imagine, but they cannot much longer tolerate the massacre of souls, day and night, through sin.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", pp. 197-198.

Mercy of God and Calls to Repentance

I am the Queen of Heaven; I am the Queen of Peace; I am the Mother of your Saviour; I am the One who precedes the Lord's coming; I am the One who opened a broad highway for your Redeemer to descend on earth and today again, the Most High is sending Me to make smooth and level a Path for His Return. Although Satan uses men to delay My Work and put obstacles in its midst, do not fear, the Lord is Almighty and in the end Our Hearts will prevail. Rely on His massive Strength for He can uproot mountains and melt the rocks. Nothing can stop His Powerful Hand.

What do you see above you? Look above your heads what the Lord is raising, the Lord is raising over you the Banner of His Great Love and Mercy. He is coming to restore you with His caresses and feed you with delights; He is coming to fragrance you with His delicate perfume of Myrrh; He is coming to soothe your wounds with His balm of Tenderness; He is coming down to pour out His oil on you generation and anoint you. The King will bring you into His Rooms to console you and wipe away your tears. Like the pupil of His Eye He is watching over you, and you, would you in your turn return His Love? Offer Him your heart and your will. ... The Virgin Mary in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, J.M.J. Publications, pp. 236-237.

You are now entering into the times when the miracle of divine mercy will become manifest to all. See how humanity lies prostrate and wounded, lacerated and defeated, threatened and stricken, diseased and dying. Of itself it can no longer rise again, unless a great mercy lift it up.

The moment is at hand when the Heavenly Father will take it up in his arms, will relieve it of evil, will heal it and bring it with Him into his delightful garden.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 1993, pp. 754-755.

Love and Loyalty now descend to embrace all of you, to renew you, to revive you and lift you up from the lethargy that covers this earth. Do not say I am too far to reach, unmoved by your misery and unresponsive to your calls. If the flames lick up your countries and fires devour the people of the earth, it is all due to the great apostasy that seized nation after nation, infiltrating in the heart of My Law. This apostasy beggared you and made you believe you are fatherless... How I pity you! O generation! For how long must I wait? My warnings and My calls echo the earth and though My grief is acute and My Justice now brimming over, I can still relent and I can accept the homage you would offer Me. I am ready to forgive you through the Blood shed by My Son and through His Sacrifice, if you take My Words to heart. I, who created you out Love, ask you: will I hear from you your cry of repentance?... ... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 59-64, vol. 3, p. 81.

I, your Creator, am your Father and I am calling you back to Me. Believe in My distress calls. Will your soul continue to befriend the Rebel, or will you deign to come down from your throne and repent? It is for you to decide. There is not much time left. ... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 3, p. 85.

Many of you have forgotten God's ways, you have drifted away, as if taken by a current in a lake, into a pool of lethargy. Polluted with materialism your course changed direction and from holiness and the rightful Path you have been led right into the devil's nets and into the lion's mouth! You have not followed the marks of Precious Blood Jesus left behind Him as a signpost for you to follow, no, you have followed the polluted directions Satan put up for you, directions leading all to the desert where there would be no one to care for your sores and no one to console you, and where you would die.

Your generation failed to appreciate God's great Love, this is why your lands are set aflame by egoism, by godlessness and by the fury of Satan and still to this day his hand is raised to strike you and set aflame all the nations. Because of your atheism and your perversity you have wrapped yourselves in the shroud of death, you have wrapped your beloved ones in a cloud of flint. I call in agony from above, to you all to make peace with God, to reconcile with your families. ... The Virgin Mary in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 2, p. 237.

Vassula, there is a baptism to come and what a great baptism that will be!

Jesus will baptise the earth with Fire.

Until then I shall keep appearing. So now is the time of repentance, now is the time of reconciliation. I tell you, dear children, the sacrifice God asks of you today is to change your lives and live holy. God is asking every soul to repent. Do not say that you are too wretched for God to forgive you, and that the Most High will not be compassionate anymore. God comes to you all, even to the most wretched. Return to God and He will return to you. Come and make your home in His Heart as He makes His in yours. Let it be known that without earnest prayers you will not be able to see the Kingdom of God. His reign on earth is at hand. Remember: what God wants of you is a change of heart. Do not be afraid to acknowledge your sins. Live and practice the sacrament of confession.

... The Virgin Mary in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 4, J.M.J. Publications, pp. 16-17.

I am the Good Shepherd who seek among the rubbles My lambs and My sheep. I come to seek you with My Heart in My Hand to offer It to you; I come to seek you in your poverty to remind you again that you are not fatherless and that you all belong to Me; I come to remind you that in My Father's House there is a room for you My child, a room which belongs to you. My Soul is yearning for you. My soul is in unspeakable distress when every time a room is left void for eternity. ... Our Lord to Vassula in "True Life in God", vol. 2, p. 91.

...Like a lover who pursues his well-beloved, I go in all directions seeking by what means I could make you Mine for all Eternity. Show Me generation that behind your wall I can still find a faithful friend, even if I find none, a hesitant friend... and I will turn your deceitfulness into sincere speech so that the Day of disaster does not strike you. Friend! you who still hesitate between evil and good, do not be tepid! Have you not yet understood that My Heart is sick with Love? Come and feel My Heartbeats, every single Heartbeat is a beautiful song of Love. Come to Me before the sun sets and before the shadows of the night fall like a veil on you. Come to Me, do not leave Me in dismay until tomorrow. Come before the Gale and Fire come to scatter you like chaff. Come to Me and I shall watch over your soul in the days of distress. Let Me hear your soul, let Me hear the sound of your step, let Me hear your voice before nightfall...

The fig tree is ripe and soon you shall be eating its first fruits... happy you who are hungry now, you shall be satisfied. Love loves you, My House is your House. Fall into my arms and I shall fill your aridity with My flow of Love. Come, I Jesus love you without measure.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, pp. 162-163.

Come you who have not acknowledged Me yet as your Redeemer and detach yourself from the elemental things that can neither lift nor feed your soul, why be enslaved to them? Come back to Me. Even in your wretchedness and your guilt, I accept you as you are and tell you that I have forgiven you already. Let Me tell you My child that no man has greater love for you than Mine. Lift your eyes to Me and behold Who is pleading you, it is I, Jesus, your saviour, who comes to you today speaking through the mouths of even the least among you. I come bare-foot and like a Beggar to ask from you a return of love. I am in search of your heart, do not refuse Me. Day and night I stretch out My Hands to you, when will you come to Me? When will I hear your response? Will I find an answer in this wilderness My child? or will Silence cover My Soul? Listen, listen to My plea, this is the consolation you can offer Me. Do not be afraid, I will help you, see? I shall renew you entirely if you shall abandon yourself to Me. [...] I have come to give you Hope, I have come to give you Light, I have come not to condemn you but to awaken you My child and to show you My sacred Heart and

Who is standing before you.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 144.

What suffering is felt by one who feels abandoned; suffering that many cannot understand, but that tortures and breaks the heart!

And so, My son, stop and consider how I have been abandoned, not only by mankind, but also by the "children of God", by My brothers, by My "friends", by My ministers, and by so many of My Pastors. Look and see how I am treated in the Mystery of Love, look at the way I am left all alone. Look and see how I am sacriliciously betrayed and sold. Look at how many deny Me, how many hate Me... Love hated! Love, which seeks nothing but love in return, is, instead, faced with aversion, hostility and, often, hatred! The Way is abandoned, the Truth is replaced by error, the Life is refused and subordinated to death... I, the Light, am shunned in favour of the dark!

You see, My son, that much as one may suffer and weep for having been abandoned, the pain of being actively disliked is even worse. In My Church today, My Merciful Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Mother and yours are actively disliked. Why do I keep telling you these things? I insist on them so that you will write them down and shout from the rooftops: "Be converted to the Lord, or you will all perish!"

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1992, pp. 265-266.

I come before you to revise your knowledge of My Word; I come with great love to revive the corpses of My sons and daughters; I come to convert you and remind you of My statutes; I come to call the sinner to confession; I come to call to repentance all those priests, bishops and cardinals who have so wickedly wounded My Sacred Heart and betrayed Me their Friend and God. ... The Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 2, p. 20.

Hear Me: Shout! Shout to the nations without fear. Repent! for the Time of Mercy is almost over. Change your lives and live holy, sacrifice and amend your lives before the coming of the Lord. Pray, pray for those who suppress My Spirit. Pray for those who speak of unity but stretch a net for those who practice it.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 342.

There is very little time left now. Forgive your neighbor while you have still time. Make reparations, fast. If you are a sinner who sows trouble between friends, repent. For the sake of My Holy Name return to Me. You are master of your will but not of My Plans and I urge you to surrender quickly.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 351.

Repent! generation, your sins have dried up your soul, why die, generation? Repent and you will live! Repent, because there is not much time left now; the Destroyer will reveal himself in these coming days, entirely! Oh Vassula! Whom can I urge to hear and warn? Whom am I to speak to and who will listen?

... Our Lord to Vassula in "True Life in God", vol. 4 , p. 28.

A sick person who refuses both doctor and remedies is marked for death. That is why I have tried to reach you by every possible means, including this invitation to be converted before it is too late.

The instrument I used was ordered to shout from the rooftops: "Be converted to the Lord, your God! Be converted before it is too late!"

I repeat, the time of mercy is about to give way to the time of justice. Do not complain that I insist. Do not say, "This repetition is getting monotonous." I am your God, I am your Father, I am your Brother, I am your Saviour. Love is God's only motive, His only object, in asking you, pleading with you to "be converted before it is too late, or you will perish!" Satan, your enemy, is playing tricks on you, to make you think that My Justice is dead. In Me, Mercy and Justice are one and the same thing. Can anyone be so blind?

... Our Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1992, p. 153.

Tell them that mercy and wrath alike belong to Me, who am Mighty to forgive and to pour out wrath. My mercy is great, but My severity is as great. You see, daughter, I will soon reveal My Justice too. My Plan has a determined time. Once this time of Mercy is over, I will show everyone, good and evil, that My severity is as great as My Mercy, that My wrath is as powerful as My forgiveness. All things predicted by Me will pass swifly now.

... Our Lord to Vassula in "True Life in God", vol. 3, p. 99.

I ask nothing of My children that they have not already. If they have but faults and sins, let them give them to Me, and I will purify them; I will unburden them; I will forgive them; I will not blame them, I will only love them. I love all those who fall and come to Me asking for forgiveness; I love them still more. I will never reject them even if they fall millions of times; I will be there to forgive them and wash in My Blood their iniquities, never will I weary in pardoning them, for I am a God of Love and Mercy. I am full of pity for the weak. My Heart is Holy and an Abyss of Forgiveness. ... The Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 23.

The weak and sinful soul need not fear to approach Me, for even if her sins were more numerous than all the sands of the sea, they would all be wiped out in the depths of My Mercy.

... The Lord to Sister Faustina in "Petit journal de Soeur Faustine", Éditions Jules Hovine, 1985, p. 366.

Write down, My secretary, that I am more generous towards sinners than towards the just. It was for them that I came to Earth and for them that I shed My Blood. They must not fear to approach Me. They are the ones who are most in need of My Mercy.

... The Lord to Sister Faustina in "Petit journal de Soeur Faustine", p. 419.

My mercy abandons no one, not even the most obstinate sinners. On the contrary, it follows them, pursues them with the perseverance of My untiring Love. I despise no one, for I am God, and all are my children. (p. 48)

It is when you stray and are perishing that I go searching for you and bring you back to the fold. Repent and return to my arms, where you will always have a fatherly welcome!

If I am to be your lawyer, you must have a case for me to plead. If your heart only produces bad or bitter fruit, give it to Me just the same. I have compassion for everything that makes you what you are. I welcome everything with open arms.

A doctor is not concerned with his patient's healthy qualities. He tries to diagnose his ailment and prescribe the proper remedy. That is how I am. I seek to heal souls. I am the best of doctors because, if I wish to, I can heal souls.

I am always near the suffering soul. My attentions to those whom I know to be sick are like those of a devoted mother. I am the refuge of the abandoned and rejected.

If my earthly creatures knew me as I really am, they would truly love Me with all their hearts and souls. It is ignorance that keeps them away from love. (p. 49)

For many souls, I am no longer the one, True Lord who knows and cares for all His creatures. Am I, then, as too many think, but a passive being who sees all and tolerates all with cold indifference? How you wrong Me when you think this way! What an injustice you do to My Divine Heart, which is so attentive to the needs of even the least among you! (p. 50)

Could you persuade a mother to abandon her suffering child? Well, all the parental affection of the most tender earthly mothers is nothing compared to the attentions of my loving care. (pp. 50-51)

If I shed My Blood, if I gave My life for millions upon millions of souls who have not taken advantage of it, imagine how indulgent I am towards those who follow Me, even if they are limping! (p. 51)

A rich man seeking shelter in a barn would find only extreme poverty there, but he would adapt, knowing that a poor peasant has nothing better to offer. That is how I act with you. I know that you are very poor in everything, but I accept your love and your offerings, even if they lack flavour and scope.

If you truly love your Jesus, he will shut His eyes to all the rest. You are dealing with a Father who is full of kindness and tenderness.

I am the Good Samaritan. I have wine and oil for all of your wounds. I am not a tyrant. I am a Merciful Father who understands your weakness.

What good is misery? Yet, misery accepted and endured with humility and hope becomes invaluable through My infinite goodness. I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. That is why, when souls know how to follow, see and love, I immediately enlighten their souls, bringing them the gift of an interior life. (p. 52)

If the one who brings Me the most miseries, weaknesses and sins to be burned is moved to it by sincere repentance and humility, I welcome him as though he had brought Me a cartload of precious jewels. (p. 54)

I love you just as you are, dressed as you are, always in rags... as long as they are clean and mended. What I mean is that you should not be neglectful or wilfully malicious. You must always be anxious to make your garments clean again. (p. 56)

... The Lord to an anonymous sister in "Si tu m'ouvres la porte", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1988, pp. 48-56.

You are a sinner... You are covered with mud, and that weighs on you, for you feel the need to be free from sin. You feel drawn to a higher realm, for your souls were created for higher things. So I say to you, come, come to My Divine Heart! You are contrite, go to my priest. He is there to give you my forgiveness.

... The Lord in "J'ai soif !", Lucie, Éditions Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1993, pp. 54-55.

I wanted to die with My arms opened on the Cross so that all men would feel invited to come and seek refuge in My Heart.

I am the Love which calls both the just and the sinners, both the free and the oppressed!

I am the Father who calls you, the Spirit who draws you, and the Love who awaits you!

I accept your miseries, your sins, your joys and your tears, your hopes and your despair.

By an act of Love, I welcome you, the prodigal child, into my outstretched arms.

I gather your good wishes, your good intentions. I gather up souls who are wandering aimlessly. I welcome them as a Father, as a Brother, as a Friend. My love is all in all. (pp. 176-177)

God's Mercy will spread over mankind like a healing ointment soothing a burn... the burn is inevitable, the wound must be cauterized to destroy the evil.

Look at the face of Mercy: it is all Love and Tenderness.

Mercy is not impatient, does not concede defeat, does not lay down its arms. Mercy is Love and Patience. It hunts out misery and eats it away.

I love each soul with a particular love; that is, with a personal love, as though it were unique.

Imagine the sadness of a great Love dashed against a heart of stone... Imagine the Fire of love breaking upon the stone, thousands and thousands of times, unable to kindle it, without seeing so much as a pale reflection of itself. A great Love which finds no echo in a heart it is hopelessly in love with. (pp. 22-23)

I love and yet I am not loved... I have a burning desire to forgive, but no one comes to ask forgiveness... I have a burning desire to give, but no one asks for anything... I am the Light, and I give true knowledge, but mankind prefers darkness and worldly knowledge.

If someone asks you who is telling you these things and asking you to write them down, say it is Mercy! (p. 21)

... The Lord in "Viens Esprit Saint !", Lucie, Éditions Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1992.

I require you to perform acts of mercy, acts which must flow from your love for Me. You must always and everywhere show mercy to others. You cannot get away from it or make excuses or try to justify yourself. I suggest three ways to be merciful towards your neighbour: first, in your actions; second, in your words, and third, in your prayers. These three steps contain the fullness of mercy. They are absolute proof of love for Me. (p. 278)

Write this down for the many souls who worry at times because they lack the material means to perform acts of mercy. Still, how much greater is the merit for acts of spiritual mercy, which do not require permission or wealth, and are within the reach of every soul. (p. 431)

During Holy Mass, I caught sight of Jesus, hanging on the cross. He said to Me: "My pupil, love those who are making you suffer. Love them very much. Do good to those who hate you." I answered: "Oh, Master, you do see that I feel no love for them. I do not feel good about it, either."

Jesus answered: "To feel love is not always in your power. You will recognize that you love them when, after enduring annoyances and contradictions without losing your temper, you pray for those who made you suffer and you have feelings of good will towards them." (p. 521)

Warnings and Signs

Beloved one, the End of Times is at hand. I have said that I will give you signs and warnings. ... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 1-31, vol. 1, J. M. J. Publications, N. Ireland, p. 247.

Listen, just before My Return I shall give mankind still greater Signs than what I am giving you today.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, J.M.J. Publications, Northern Ireland, p. 182.

I am Mercy, I am love. Look up in Heaven and see the Signs of the Times, I am coming to gather nation after nation and show My Holy Face to each one of you and remind you of My Love.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 281.

For the sake of My Holy Name I shall demonstrate Myself through these very things you do not believe anymore, I shall demonstrate My Holy Spirit through marvels, through miracles. I shall demonstrate My Power through weakness and wretchedness as never before.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 312.

Oh how little do you know the Holy Trinity! Distressed and starved you shall not be left, never, nor shall you be abandoned to wander, starving in this desert.

The blackness of your era shall not last forever, your sins shall soon be purged and the Beast will be paralysed soon together with His clan. They will grovel in the dust because a Light shall soon appear in the horizon; this shall be the Great Sign¹.

... The Virgin Mary to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 268.

My Church needs vivification. Pray for those priests, bishops and cardinals who have nothing to offer My lambs for this is the result of their digression; they have been and still are inactive, never seeking My interests but their own; they have made inside themselves a desert and they know it. No lamb is attracted by wilderness; naturally any sheep will go astray, wandering, because they have no shepherd to guard them, love them, shelter them and feed them. I have revealed many wonders to the world since the beginning of Times. Beloved, since the world rejects My Celestial Works, removing all hopes from you and thus remote Me, My anger burns against these shepherds. The time is near when I will reveal to them My Glory and it shall be shown by a Sign, a grandiose Sign¹ so that they may understand how wrong they were. This Sign will be given to you so that many may believe. Pray, for the time is near; pray for the Great Return of Peace and Love.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 304.

The world does not listen to Our two Hearts, nor understand them. They are rejecting Us...but the hour is near when a Light will shine from above and Our Two Hearts, like two Lamps shining near each other, will revive this world, bringing it from darkness to light. Those two Hearts the world combatted will prevail in the end! And the kingdoms of the world will pass away and will be replaced by My Son's Kingdom... This is all very near you now!

... The Virgin Mary in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebooks 59-64, vol. 3, J.M.J. Publications, p. 78.

Tell My people that I shall come to them soon. On that Day every inhabitant in this world will know that I Am Who I Am. ... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 3, p. 17.

The First warning of God:

The trumpet will sound very soon. At the same moment, the earth will quake, the sun will begin to spin and explode, the moon will fade, and these wonders will be seen all over the world. One star will light up and will seem to be wrapped in flames. This will last for twenty minutes. There will be panic everywhere. All who believe in God and the Blessed Virgin Mary will be as though in ecstasy for those twenty minutes. Daughter, these things are very near.

... The Virgin Mary to the Spanish stigmatised Amparo Cuevas, February 26, 1982 (Notre-Dame de l'Escurial), cited by Jean Stiegler, "Le repentir mondial", Éditions Résiac, Montsûrs, 1991, pp. 58-59.

Soon I will descend to purify you. I, the Lord, solemnly tell you that I will seize you by surprise, inducing My Light upon you. My Heavens will shake the earth and all those who love Me will glorify Me, bending their knee; and many will remember Me and return to Me, this will be known as the Great conversion of the Church. But, to My great sorrow, there will be those stubborn souls who blasphemed My Holy Name and who battle on My adversary's side, these souls will reject Me even more. When this happens, Satan will wipe them away, pulling them with him into the Eternal Fire.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 359.

...I will convince them. My power is beyond theirs; I will show to you all that I am Omnipotent. My Omnipotence will be seen wherever you may be; no eye will be able to deny it; no man will deny that this sign comes from Me. Beloved, how will their theories appear then? How will their men of science feel? What will happen to all their wisdom? I will show to them how their wisdom appears in the face of My Wisdom. I will efface from this world what they believe is wisdom. This is one of the reasons I use you, engraving My words on you, to be able to foretell My Plan. I, the Lord, Am, I was, and will always be; and it is not up to you to look at Me as not. I Am. ... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, pp. 202-203.

But, courage, Christians! God's reign is near! It will open with an event as spectacular as it is unexpected. God will confound the pride of unbelievers. He will destroy the obstacles raised by those who would prevent the light from shining, and upset their plans.

God will visibly intervene to subdue rebellious humanity, to crush unbelief and to enlighten rationalism.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérizinen", p. 134.

When the first secret becomes a reality, Satan's power will be broken. That is why he is so aggressive right now. He has held tremendous power in the twentieth century, power such as he had never held before and will never hold again.

... testimony of Mirjana, one of the seers of the Virgin Mary in Medjugorje (cited in 'Informateur Catholique of October the 4th 1992).

...I am Love, yet I suffer loneliness because of the rejection of My Own. My children have forsaken the paths of Righteousness, the Fountain of Wisdom, they are not listening to Our Two Hearts but it had been said that the Rebel, that is the spirit of Rebellion, who "speaks words against the Most High and harasses the Saints of the Most High" (Dn 7, 25) will challenge My Power. This spirit of Rebellion "considers changing seasons and My Law" (Dn 7, 25). Look around you only and you will understand, Rationalism and Modernism are the prime enemy of My Church because both of these lead to atheism. Both of them want to devour the whole earth, but My daughter, I will breathe My Fire upon these renegades so that the scales from their eyes once fallen, they may see what great disorder they have produced and what oppression they had put upon Our Two Hearts. I am going to pass through all of you.

Repent!

for the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.

...My return is imminent and My Face will be revealed from Heaven against all the impiety of the world, so be prepared. Everyone who proved to be false will see what fatal wounds they have given to their soul. I will come among you in splendour and in Glory. The Spirit of Truth will be revealed in you to cleanse your soul, you shall see Me face to face ¹ and you shall see yourselves fully as you are known.

So come to Me as you are now, do not wait to be saints. Come and understand what I seek most from you, I love you with an everlasting Love. I have offered you My Life taking your faults on Myself. I have reconciled you to the Father and I allowed the hands that I Myself formed, to crucify Me

So what could I have done more that I have not done?

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, pp. 417-418.

Apostasy challenged My Mercy, and Rationalism, this plague of your era, challenged My Power.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 312.

Some of you today are sad because the world is passing premature judgement on My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of your Mother, but soon Our Two Hearts will show the world how wrong it was, about judging when I will reveal My Holy Face in them.¹

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 312.

¹ That is in the Purification Day, when we will see our sins with God's Eyes.

The Lord whom you are seeking will suddenly come upon you. The One whom you are longing for is coming. So I tell you, do not resist My Holy Spirit who will come now in full force to unwrap the death shroud which covers your nations, prohibiting you to see the Light. I will descend in full force with My Spirit, to unmask the deceivers and driveout the traders who infiltrated into My Sanctuary. Turn your eyes to Me generation and see the Joy that is coming to you soon. My Holy spirit will descend in its fullness not only to save the wretches but I will descend also for judgement, to give sight to the blind and take away the sight of those who say they see. And from those who call themselves wise and instructed I will confuse to the point that they would not know who they are and where they come from. I tell you solemnly, I will instruct the unworthy and those whom you call foolish and contemptible, I will raise and instruct them with My Knowledge turning them to devout pupils of the Truth, to shame those who hold back My Kingdom from them. I tell you: "the dead will be making their way into My Kingdom before you; ² My Spirit of Grace came to you at your doors but you did not want to believe in My Marvels nor in My Miracles and yet the ones you call contemptible and who are the rejects of your society, believed with humility, with fervour and with love.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, pp. 225-226.

² The "wise".

Lift all of you your faces and search the Heavens for My Holy Face to contemplate! Lift your eyes towards Heaven and you shall not perish. Repent! and ask the Father to relent. Soon, very soon now, the Heavens will open and I shall make you see

The Judge.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 354.

Already, your God is about to pass judgement on you ...

... The Virgin Mary in "Marie pourquoi pleures-tu ? Faits et messages de Naju-Corée du Sud", R. Spies et L. Couëtte, Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1991, p. 71.

What will come to pass is something so very great that it will exceed anything that has taken place since the beginning of the world. It will be like a judgment in miniature, and each one will see his own life and all he has done, in the very light of God.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests, Our Lady's Beloved sons", The Marian Movement of Priests, St. Francis, Maine, 14th Edition, pp. 784-785.

Now all I have to say is: examine yourselves before Judgement comes, you have very little time left now. Pray and avoid all evil. Never condemn or judge one another. Set your hearts for Me, set your minds on Me. Stay awake for the cleansing time is soon upon you. Be filled then with My Spirit of Love so that your sins will not suffocate you.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 410.

For the Great Day of My Purification is soon upon you and who will be able to survive it? Everyone on this earth will have to be purified, everyone will hear My Voice and recognize Me as the Lamb. All races and all religions will see Me in their interior darkness. This will be given to everyone like a secret revelation to reveal the obscurity of your soul. When you will see your insides in this state of grace you will indeed ask the mountains and the rocks to fall on you. The darkness of your soul will appear as such that you would think the sun lost its light and that the moon too turned into blood. This is how your soul will appear to you, but in the end, you will only praise Me.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 431.

O Jerusalem! Turn your eyes to the east and to the west. Turn your eyes to the north and to the south and I Am there! I tell you truly that once more My Spirit will be poured on you and My Image will be spread across the face of the world. What I have planned shall happen and what I have told you shall be fulfilled. Come close to Me and listen carefully: today I come all the way to your doorstep holding the banner of Peace. I am coming to save you Jerusalem. On it is written: Faithful and True (Ap 19, 11), the King of kings and the Lord of lords (Ap 19, 16). Will I hear from you Jerusalem: "My King, it is You that I have to worship" or will you still be unaware of He who offers you His Peace... now? Will you in these last days before the Day of Retribution recognize My Holy Spirit who descended from above in all His Glory to make house with you? During your whole lifetime, generation, you flouted My Law and turned away, rebelling. Are you ever going to be prepared to meet Me, your God? I am soon going to pass through your City ¹ and it will be sooner than you think! These will be My last warnings. I solemnly tell you:

Wake up from your deep sleep!
You are heading for your ruin.
Shake off the dust that cover and rise from the dead.
The End of Times ² is nearer than you think.

¹ That is, through us. We are cities.

² The End of Times is Not the End of the world, it is the end of an epoch.

1. I soon, very soon, shall suddenly open My Sanctuary in Heaven and there, your eyes unveiled, you will perceive like a secret revelation myriads of Angels, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers, all prostrated around

The Ark of the Covenant.

Then, a Breath will slide over your face and the Powers of Heaven will shake. Flashes of lightening will be followed by peals of thunder. "Suddenly upon you will come a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came to existence" (Daniel 12, 1). For I will allow your soul to perceive all the events of your lifetime, I will unfold them one after the other. To the great dismay of your soul, you will realize how much innocent blood your sins shed from victim souls. I will then make your soul aware to see how you had never been following My Law. Like an unrolled scroll, I will open The Ark of The Covenant and make you conscious of your lawlessness.

2. If you would still be alive and standing on your feet, the eyes of your soul will behold a dazzling Light, like the glitter of many precious stones, like the sparks of crystal-clear diamonds. A light so pure and so bright that although myriads of angels would be standing nearby, in Silence, you will not see them completely because this Light will be covering them like a silverish golden dust. Your soul will only perceive their form, not their face. Then, in the midst of this dazzling Light, your soul will see what they had once seen in that fraction of a second, that very moment of your creation...

They will see: He who held you first in His Hands, The Eyes that saw you first.

They will see: The Hands of
He who shaped you and blessed you...
They will see the Most Tender Father, your Creator, all clothed in fearful splendour.
The First and the Last.
He who is, who was, and is to come,
The Almighty.
The Alpha and the Omega
The Ruler.

Shrivelled with your awakening, your eyes will be transfixed in Mine which will be like two Flames of Fire (Apocalypse 19, 12). Your heart then will look back on its sins and will be seized with remorse. You will, in great distress and agony suffer your lawlessness, realizing how you were constantly profaning My Holy Name and how you were rejecting Me, your Father... Panic-stricken, you will tremble and shudder when you will see yourself as a decaying corpse, devastated by worm and by vulture.

3. And if your legs will still be holding you up, I will show you what your soul, My Temple and My Dwelling, was nursing all the years of your life. Instead of My Perpetual Sacrifice, you will see to your dismay that you were fondling The Viper and that you had erected this Disastrous Abomination of which the prophet Daniel spoke in the most profound domain of your soul:

the Blasphemy that cut off all your heavenly bonds linking you to Me and making a gulf between you and Me, your God. When this Day comes, the scales of your eyes will fall so that you may perceive how naked you are and how within you, you are a land of drought...Unhappy creature, your rebellion and your denial of The Most Holy Trinity turned you into a renegade and a persecutor of My Word. Your laments and your wailing will be heard only by you then. I tell you: you will mourn and you will weep but your laments will only be heard by your own ears. I can only judge as I am told to judge and My judging will be just. As it was in Noah's time, so will it be when I will open the Heavens and show you The Ark of the Covenant: "for in those days before the Flood, people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept all away". (Matthew 24: 38-39)

This is how it will be in this Day too; and I tell you, if that time had not been shortened by the intercession of your Holy Mother, the martyr saints and the pool of blood shed on earth, from Abel the Holy to the blood of all My prophets, not one of you would have survived !

I, your God, am sending angel after angel to announce that My Time of Mercy is running short and that the Time of My Reign on earth is close at hand. I am sending My angels to witness of My Love "to all who live on earth, every nation, race, language and tribe" (Apocalypse 14, 6). I am sending them out as apostles of the last days to announce that "the Kingdom of the world would become like My Kingdom of above and that My Spirit will reign for ever and ever" (Apocalypse 11, 15) in your midst. I am sending My servants the prophets to cry out in this wilderness that you should:

Fear Me and praise Me because the Time has come for Me to sit in judgement ! (Apocalypse 14, 7)

My Kingdom will come suddenly upon you, this is why you must have constancy and faith till the end. My child, pray for the sinner who is unaware of his decay.

Pray and ask the Father to forgive the crimes the world ceaselessly commit.
Pray for the conversion of souls, pray for Peace.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, pp. 355-358.

My little children, I shall not be long, I am already on My Way of Return. I am telling you this before it happens, because when it does happen you may believe that this Voice you have been hearing all these years, came from Me. I am telling you this so that you may rejoice, because I too rejoice for this Day when Satan's head will be crushed by My Mother's heel. Hear Me: I shall pour out My Spirit on this evil generation to entice hearts and lead everyone back to the complete Truth, to live a Perfect Life in Me your God.

But be brave, because there will still be a Fire before My Day, so do not fear nor be sad, because without this Fire the world's face cannot change... and when it comes, it will show the world how wrong it was. It will show its godlessness, its rationalism, materialism, selfishness, pride, greed and its wickedness, in short, all those vices the world worships. No one can say that I have not been telling you the outset of My Plans. No one can say that I have been hiding My Plans from you.

I am The Truth

and The Truth will always open His Heart and expose to you His fervent Plans as they are. The Truth will always give you the choice of proving yourselves to Him. If I had not spoken to you, if I had not been opening now the Heavens to you, you would be excused, but I have been calling you day and night without ceasing. I have been sending you My angels to speak to you; I raised from nothing, wretched souls and formed them into fervent disciples to go and knock on your doors and repeat to you the Words I Myself have given them. No, they were not speaking as from themselves, but were only repeating the Knowledge that I Myself have instructed them with. They went to you in their poverty and barefoot to tell you of the things that are to come, not adding nor deducting anything from that which I have given them, all they said was taken from Wisdom Herself.

Now, I solemnly tell you, that when that Day of Purification comes, many will be sorrowful to the point of death for not having allowed My Holy Spirit of Truth to enter their house¹, but have welcomed in His place the Viper, the Abomination and shared their meal side by side with My enemy. They welcomed inside their house the one who apes the Holy One, they worshipped the Deceiver, who taught them to misconceive My Holy Spirit:

My Holy Spirit, The Giver of Life and The Inner Power of their soul.

He who breathed an active soul into them and inspired a living spirit. I tell you solemnly, My Fire will descend in this world quicker than you expect it to come, so that those without sight of their sins may suddenly see their guilt. It is in My Power to bring this Day forward and it is again within My Power to shorten this Hour, for this Hour will bring so much distress that many would curse the hour of their birth. They would want the valleys to open and swallow them, the mountains to fall on them and cover them, the vulture to devastate them quickly. They would want to dash themselves to pieces but no one will escape from this Hour. Those that truly love Me will suffer only for not having done more for Me. They too will be cleansed. But woe to those who rejected Me and refused to recognize Me, they have their judge already. The Truth that was given to them will be their judge on that Day.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, pp. 358-360.

My Church has been wounded savagely and in a short time Ecclesia's Foundation will be shaken; this will be followed by the extirpation of all those who caused Her Wounds and who accumulated in My Body with intention of harming It. Her Tribulations have just started. Jerusalem's walls will tumble down into a heap of dust so that My New Jerusalem can be rebuilt. It is I, the Lord, who will construct her again; I will renew Her walls; I will embellish her so that you may all live under her New Roof, under a New Heaven and a New Earth, and Love will return to you as Love. Living among you, I will be your God and under My Name you will all live peacefully. Your spirit will be filled with holiness and purity. Yes Vassula, I will descend from above, like Lightning, renewing her entirely. Tribulations there will be many because they have made desolate My House. They have plundered It.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 1-31, vol. 1, J. M. J. Publications, pp. 348-349.

Why have in My House Cains, seeking only their interests and not Mine? I will, with Heavenly Strength, unmask them, I will unveil that which is hidden. Do not fear beloved; My Church I will clean; I will sweep away all those that obstruct The Way to Divine Love and from entering into My Sacred Heart.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 249.

I will enter "Jerusalem" so that the New Jerusalem can begin to see the Light; I will sweep away those blocks and open the Way, this My Vassula will be known as the Great Tribulation of My Church. I will then place into Peter's hand an iron sceptre with which he will guard My sheep, and for those who do not know and still ask themselves: "why is it that we have to have a guide?" I tell you this - "have you ever seen or known of any flock of sheep without a shepherd? I am your Heavenly Shepherd and I have chosen Peter to keep My lambs until My return. I have given him the responsibility, so why all these disputes, why all these futilities arguments? And for all those who still do not know My words, I tell you to read them in the Scriptures, they are to be found in the testimony of John, My disciple¹. I will then unite My Church and encircle you with My arms into one fold for today; as it is, you are all scattered, developing too many communities, split sections. My Body you have torn apart and this CANNOT BE². I will unite you all.

Jesus here means to unite The Roman Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants, but also other groups apart from these, even sects. The Lord will call us under Peter, or, Peter will come to us.

Then I and Peter will work together; I will show him My hidden elements; I will show him many of My mysteries to enable him to teach them to My children and under this teaching you will see a new heaven and a new earth. I, the Lord, will renew the walls of My Sanctuary. Ah Vassula! There is so much to be repaired!

² Jesus was definite here.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 1-31, p. 330.

I am going to save My people, and I will take men from every nation, every race and every language by their sleeve and ask them: "Do you want to follow Me?" and they will say: "We want to go with You, since we have now learnt the Truth" and I will bring one after the other back to live in My Heart! I mean to bring peace in each heart. Yes! The vine I had planted in the past will give fruit for My Glory. I will not be slow nor will I ignore the cries of the faithful. If on man builds My Church while another one pulls it down, on whom will the fury of My Father pour out in the Day of Judgement?

... Our Lord to Vassula, in "True Life in God", vol. 3, p. 95.

Ecclesia needs to be revived and Her time of Purification is almost over now. The Holy Spirit will descend upon you all, giving you hope, love and faith; restoring your faith and nourishing your soul. This will be known as the Great Return; as the Sprouting of an Everlasting Source; as the Flourishing of Flowers. Ecclesia's purge will prepare you all to face a New Heaven and a New Earth. She will prepare you to face your God. Understand My deep love I have for all of you.

... The Virgin Mary to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 353.

Yes, all of this generation is adulteress, but I mean to save your generation like I saved you, even if I have to drag her out to the desert and do unto her as I have done to You!: I shall expose her nakedness in her eyes, and at the first sound of repentance, I shall come flying to her as I came flying to you. Then in the presence of My angels I shall sing to her My Song of Love. I shall turn her away from the path of delusion and grant her the grace of My Law. Then I shall take her hand into My Hand to guide her back into My House, where I shall show to her all the Riches of My Sacred Heart, these Treasures My Heart kept for the end of Times, to enliven this flickering flame about to extinguish into a Consuming Fire, to give light to those who live in darkness and the shadow of death.

¹ A purification like in purgatory. When I saw my sins with God's eyes.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 220.

This revelation will enflame Our children's hearts with love. ... The Virgin Mary to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 312.

But I promise you My child, that I shall prevail in the end. I will overpower these false teachers of your era and I will give you the hidden treasures of My Sacred Heart, putting on your tongue the language of My Cross which is Love, with all Its Mysteries and Miracles and Wonders!

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, pp. 220-221.

And so, when the love of My Truth triumphs in you, My little ones, you will rise against the false gods.

You will rise against those who would destroy faith, against those who erect false gods before you, against those who deflect the light of My Spirit... And then, My little ones, you will make God triumph, for you will have within you, in the full power of His Love, the Spirit of Strength, of Wisdom and of Truth: The Holy Spirit.

Second warning of God

Jesus showed me a scene from the future. I saw a ball cross the sky from East to West, throwing off red sparks as it passed through the clouds over our country. After a moment, the ball opened, and from within it came the Queen of the World, standing on a cloud. Coming down, she hovered just above the ground, momentarily contemplating her land, the land of the Magyars. She showered us all with a great grace which made us all able to see Her, the Most Blessed Virgin. People's hearts were suddenly warmed towards each other and were filled with remorse and a spirit of penance. Souls felt as though the weight of their sins had been lifted. Everyone fell to their knees "in the dust of their own sins". Everyone, except a very few, cried out for mercy, lifting their eyes and their hands to heaven. I saw several unrepentent ones die.

This vision was a presage of the great miracle promised to the world. That is why the Mother of God continued to hover over us even as she drifted off towards the place (Garabandal ¹) where the great miracle will happen, the ball gliding ever so slowly.

God is using the journey of this ball to shower the whole world with His Grace, through Mary, the Immaculate Mother.

... (Sister Marie-Nathalie, "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Éditions du Parvis, 1990, pp. 194-195).

Suddenly Jesus reminded me of a dream I had last night and had forgotten. It was the vision I saw lately, but it appeared worse in my dream.

-Listen, I have let you see the vision in your sleep to make you feel it. No, there is no escape!

I remember when I saw it coming like a giant wave, I tried to run and hide, knowing it's impossible.

-But why do this if You love us? Why?

-I am known as a God of Love as well as a God of Justice.

-What can we do to stop this?

-Tremendous amendments are required now from all of you: uniting and being one, loving one another, believing in Me, believing in my Heavenly Works, for I am among you always .

...Our Lord to Vassula in "True Life in God", vol. 1, pp. 180-181.

¹ Garabandal: A village in the North of Spain and the site of numerous apparitions of the Virgin Mary at the beginning of the 1960s. It is designated as the site of the great miracle to come.

The Sign Of The Cross And The Era Of The Holy Spirit

...and then the Sign of the Son of Man will appear in the skies. A great light shall be seen in your darkness, for I, the Holy One, mean to save you for the sake of My Name.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, p. 243.

The Cross will be revealed to mankind and show itself to them. And all will come and repent at the foot of the Cross.

... The Lord in "Le grand message de la Croix", Éditions Téqui, Paris, 1991, p. 176.

Write this down: Before coming as a just Judge, I am coming first of all as King of Mercy. Before the day of Justice, this sign in the heavens will be given to all men:

All the light will disappear from the sky, and there will be great darkness over all the earth. Then the Sign of the Cross will appear in the sky. Great rays of light will shine out of the Wounds in the Hands and Feet of the Saviour and, for awhile, they will illuminate the earth. This will happen shortly before the Last Day.

... The Lord to the blessed Sister Faustina in "Petit journal de Soeur Faustine", Éditions Jules Hovine, 1985, p. 65.

The Cross is already there, over the world, but the people do not see it (not yet). The Cross will enlighten their minds and make them remember Me.

... The Lord in "Viens Esprit Saint !", Éd. Téqui, Diffusion la Colombe, Paris, 1992, p. 297.

The Cross is coming, it is already here and, as I have said, its weight will be felt more and more, so that the work of purification may be completed and men's souls may be open to eternal bliss.

... The Lord to Lucie in "J'ai Soif !", Éditions Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1993, p. 297.

They have eyes, and yet they do not see... The Cross must become very heavy to be seen.

... The Lord to Lucie in "Viens Esprit Saint !" p. 219.

The Cross will visit every part of the world, one after the other. The Cross will fall upon the world, embracing it in its redeeming arms. The Cross will travel round the world.

The Cross will strike every heart, giving rise to hope, which will make way for love.

... The Lord to Lucie in "Viens Esprit Saint !", p. 222.

Yes, the Cross is over the world, you see, but listen to this: there are two kinds of crosses.

The first kind is the one I give to those who love Me. They suffer with Me in order to continue the Redemption. Their cross is often very heavy, and yet it is light, because it is a cross of love.

Then there is the other kind, which I give to My children who have strayed from Me. It is often very heavy for them too, but I give it to them so that they will remember Me and come back.

So you see, the cross which some carry helps others.

They will bend under its weight, but think how many will return to Me when their knees buckle under the weight of their sufferings! Then, everything will change into Love.

Then, alas! there are those who rebel at the cross, My poor children!

This is the secret of the cross. Each one carries one's own cross, and gives it the meaning one wishes, as one's heart is inclined. And yet, My Heart is always there, watching and waiting.

My prodigal children, your lethargy and your hearts of stone compel Me to do this. ... The Lord to Lucie in "Le grand message de la Croix", Téqui, 1991, pp. 56-57.

By my Cross, I redeemed man. I lifted him up from where he had fallen, elevated him and gave him back the dignity of a son of God.

My Cross elevates, purifies and sanctifies man.

If man has sunken to such depths, it is because he has rejected My Cross. Man is no longer elevated, and do you know why? Because he does not raise his eyes to the Cross, which would elevate him. Men's minds are so sluggish! Only the gravity of earthly things attracts them.

By losing sight of My Cross, man loses his dignity as man and as a son of God. And that is the work of the one who seeks nothing less than the ruin of man, his downfall, his humiliation. Satan wants to build his empire on the downfall and baseness of man.

By knocking down My Cross, Satan knocks down man's dignity. He builds his glory on man's degradation and, to achieve that, he tries to wipe out every sign of My Cross. He is trying to bring down My Cross in order to bring down mankind.

But My Cross will raise man up. It elevates and purifies him. Its doctrine of Love is like the One Who gave it, unchanging.

The Cross sanctifies man, maintains him in truth and leads him to eternal life.

Just as I told you: My Heart belongs to mankind, is made for mankind; so now, I tell you: My Cross was offered for mankind in order to preserve their dignity as sons of God.

When mankind gazes upon My Cross, little daughter, it cries out to them: Love one another as I have loved you. This is the cry of love that lifts up mankind... There are no more crosses, there is no more love or charity. I cry out, but I hear no echo!

Do you know what is hurting the world today? Do you know what modern man refuses? Do you know what this atheistic, twisted and pleasure seeking world rejects?

It refuses My Cross and rejects Redemption. It is heading for its own destruction, they are all heading for their own destruction by their refusal... and yet I open their eyes and I open My Arms to greet them. They refuse their cross, they refuse My Cross, and souls are swallowed up in hell. They refuse penance and sacrifice. They totally reject My Cross, as it cries out to them: Love, Love, Love!

... The Lord in "Le grand message de la Croix", p. 138.

Listen to what I say: In order to destroy the Church, they have attacked My Cross. They have portrayed the Cross to you as an abyss of suffering, an unspeakable martyrdom, a horrid spectacle, an act repugnant to human sensibility... especially in a world where suffering is bothersome, where power is the only attraction. As a matter of fact, My children, My Passion was all that and much more.

My little ones, Satan has played a trick on you to make you lose sight of Love, because it was Love that made the Cross. Without Love, the Cross would have been just as they have portrayed it, but with Love, everything is different. You forget that: Love transfigures! [...]

You have been shown the Cross without Love. Frightened, and greedy for pleasure, man has turned away from the Cross. Hell has got the better of you and is cheering. It has fooled you!

Once again, man has fallen into the trap set by the Evil One. Humanity has fallen, and even certain ministers, although sons of light, have headed in the same direction, some of them even showing the way and beating the drum!...

So there it is. Mankind is falling, the world is crumbling, and the Church is wavering, because Satan has simply made Love, transfiguring Love, disappear, and has thereby made the Cross an object of repulsion.

To bring about your damnation, Satan shows you the Cross without Love. The Redeemer shows you His Cross of Love in order to save you. To obliterate the Cross or to show you a cross without Love is the same thing.

Never forget that it is a Glorious Cross, victorious and radiant, for it was transfigured by the Love which gave birth to the Church. It is not an instrument of torture, as Satan would have you believe. Everything turns on this.

My Church was born of Love and of My sufferings of Love. Love has been erased from your minds and your thoughts. But My Church will be born again of Love.

I am telling you the truth: transfigured by Love, the Cross is light, and by My Cross, the Church, transfigured by the Divine One Who was crucified for Love, is becoming once more, the love and light of the world, of the nations, of souls. [...]

My Church will be saved! The Redeemer has spoken... The Holy Spirit will act. Transfigured by Love, the Cross will transfigure the world. The Cross transfigured by Love leads to resurrection... the resurrection of My Church and of mankind.

Transfiguration by Love is the work of The Holy Spirit. Through this, you understand all My teachings. The Spirit of Love transfigures everything It touches. The time has come to render to God what belongs to God. You will build a world of love on my Cross, transfigured through Love.

This is the time of Love... This is the era of The Holy Spirit. ... The Lord in "Le grand message de la Croix", Lucie, Éd. Téqui, Paris, 1991, pp. 143-145.

The Holy Spirit is not separate from the Redeemer. He does not act apart from Christ. That is the very essence of the Unity and Mystery of the Trinity.

The Holy Spirit has transfigured the Cross and the suffering Christ to make them into the force which has brought about the Resurrection.

Now He wants to unite His Church, the members of His Mystical Body and the world with the suffering Christ in order to produce that Resurrecting Force which you are waiting for. ... The Lord in "Le grand message de la Croix", Lucie, Éd. Téqui, Paris, 1991, p. 151.

It will be the Spirit of Love, with His powerful action of fire and of grace renewing the very foundations of the whole world.

It will be He, the Spirit of Love, with His great force of holiness and of light, bringing the Church to new splendor, making it therefore humble and poor, evangelical and chaste, merciful and holy.

It will be the Spirit of Love, through the fire of innumerable sufferings renewing all creation, that it may become that garden of God, that terrestrial paradise in which Jesus will always be with you, like a sun of light reflecting its rays everywhere. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 422.

The Holy Spirit will come, as a heavenly dew of grace and of fire, which will renew all the world. Under his irresistible action of love, the Church will open itself to live the new era of its greatest holiness and will shine resplendently with so strong a light that it will attract to itself all the nations of the earth.

The Holy Spirit will come, that the will of the Heavenly Father be accomplished and the created universe once again reflect his great glory.

The Holy Spirit will come, to establish the glorious reign of Christ and it will be a reign of grace, of holiness, of love, of justice and of peace. With his divine love, He will open the doors of hearts and illuminate all consciences. Every person will see himself in the burning fire of divine Truth. It will be like a judgment in miniature. And then Jesus Christ will bring his glorious reign in the world.

The Holy Spirit will come, by means of the triumph of My Immaculate Heart. For this, I am calling upon you all today to enter into the cenacle of My Heart. Thus you will be prepared to receive the gift of The Holy Spirit which will transform you and make you the instruments with which Jesus will establish His reign.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests...", p. 606.

Today the whole world must be brought to the fullness of the truth, to the Gospel of Jesus, to the one Church willed and founded by Christ, and this is achieved by the Holy Spirit.

The Church must be opened to his divine fire in such a way that, completely purified, it will be ready to receive the splendor of his new Pentecost, in preparation for the second, glorious coming of my Son Jesus.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests...", p. 326.

Vassula, I will bring back to Peter My scattered sheep; I, the Lord, guarantee this to you all!

(Suddenly the Lord gave me a vision of sheep still apart, another flock, then later on these too were united)

Flower, this will come after My Great Sign!

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 1-31, vol. 1, p. 231.

Soon, I shall overwhelm you with a great Miracle. Very soon now, I, the Lord, shall adorn My bride with Her glorious perfection of Her youth. Hence a covenant of peace will be sealed between brothers. Like the Morning Star, My Church shall rise; the ban will be lifted... Like an olive tree loaded with fruit, She shall stand solidly

Most of My devout ones who are under the name Luther and who have isolated themselves entirely, must return to Peter. - Lord! They will be shocked! - Vassula I will bend their knee to venerate My Mother, it is, I, the Lord who is speaking, I will bend them! and when they do, I will let My Light shine on them and rise them. I will strengthen your stems, and you shall be like an irrigated garden, like a spring of water whose waters never run dry. I will rebuild My Foundation.

The Passage:

- An old world is passing away. A new world is coming to be. The "passage" from one to the other must be made in peace, love and joy. (p. 189)

- My beloved, you are in that "passage", and I have come to help you cross through it in Love and trust. Courage, My children! You are going to the Promised Land... Follow My Cross. It is the light that will guide you in the darkness of this world, in the desert you are crossing. (pp. 235-236)

- Follow my Cross and take refuge in My Heart and in the Heart of My Most Holy Mother. If you do this, you will not perish.

- Many are dying and will die without reaching the Promised Land... But no one need die in the "passage", if they only hold on firmly to their Redeemer.

- The time of the Cross will be the time of purification, of revelation, of Light, and of Truth. (p. 227)

- The Cross will purify your hearts and will open the door to the Holy Spirit, to the reign of God.

- Do you understand that the Cross is necessary? The Cross must reign in every heart if this is to come about.

- Do you understand why I want the "passage" to be made in Love?

- I want hearts which are repentant and submissive, so that the purification may be experienced as a work of God's Love. (p. 228)

- Bear your Cross and be joyful, My little ones! The time of the Cross is a necessary one, a time of mercy and purification, a time of Love. You who love Me, make it truly a time of love, as your God wishes. (p. 229)

- Have no regrets for this crumbling, atheistic and materialistic world. It is making way for a spiritual world, where there will be place for virtue. Pray that these days may be shortened. (p. 189)

- Gather at the foot of My Cross, holding onto it with a firm grip, keeping close to My Heart and under the mantle of My Immaculate Mother.

- Listen to My voice, echoing across the centuries: "Woman, here are your sons!"

- And pray ceaselessly and confidently, awaiting the hour of your deliverance. (p. 190)

- Let nothing turn you away from My teachings. Let the forces of evil break, they will only destroy themselves.

- May the thought of My Love sustain you during the times of darkness. Lift up your head and be joyful!

The Glorious Cross on Easter Morning

"I will give them the sign of Jonah..."

I will give all souls a total immersion in the times when the prophets were announcing the One by whom the world would be saved. You will hear their voices rolling out like the sound of drums, their voices mingling with the voices of today to tell you that a Living God came to earth to give mankind

Peace and Joy in His Love.

In former times, men killed hope within themselves by killing Him. Now, they want to kill Hope itself by ignoring Him. God, Who makes Life spring up in every heart, is coming to tell this slumbering People that if they have paralysed the Life that is in them, they will soon find themselves in a blind alley, with no way out. This People is the whole World, which is hiding its face so that it will not see, but I will give them the sign of Jonath the Prophet, and I will call them to account as I did at Nineveh.

I will listen to their pleas. Unless they return to God, this People will disappear, because, at that moment, they will have full knowledge of right and wrong, and their choice will be decisive. I will bless their return and I will reestablish the dialogue between mankind and Me, their God, that has been interrupted ever since mankind renounced their God.

So you see, My children, why I ask you to continue your work of Love. The seed sown today will become tomorrow's sheaf. The harvest is near. Keep your lamps lit.

God is coming soon to light the Fire of God all over the Earth, Amen.

God speaks to the Prophets,

God speaks through His Prophets.

... The Lord in "Témoins de la Croix, Messages de Vie", J.N.S.R., De Guibert, Paris, vol. 2, 1994, p. 120.

"The Glorious Cross... on Easter Morning"

It is the Resurrected One Who, in the splendour of Easter morn, is coming to meet you and to lead you to the Father.

I want to offer living souls to the Father, not dead souls. All flesh will receive the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, so that all may believe in Me. Pray that all will accept My Truth.

I will come before you as Christ the King, in the Glory of My Resurrected Body, but I will come with My glorified Wounds, and they will be full of love, and it is the Cross which will announce My return. Therefore, My children, you should cherish it already, for it announces your King.

... The Lord in "ABBA, Père", Lucie, Éditions Téqui, Paris, 1994, pp. 113, 114, 115.

I am returning in Glory because God has pity on you, not wanting to let you die in your pride and mired in your sins.

God has pity on mankind, not wanting to see them sink so far as to think themselves the rivals of God.

God is coming to put your worst enemies to flight, those you harbour in your hearts. All this depravity could be called the "Horrible Abomination", because, little by little, you have helped the evil one to spread his poison everywhere.

The Abomination has even infiltrated the Holy Place.

And so I tell you: there is only one thing that will banish this evil which has become the ulcer of your time, of this infested century, and that is My Cross, which I will make appear in all its Glory. Glory! Glory! Glory! to the Cross which bore My sacred limbs. Three times blessed and three times glorified by the Immortal God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Look, I am coming now !

Amen, come, Lord Jesus !

May the Glory of God fill your hearts with Joy, for I am the Living God who comes to dwell with all His Children. Amen.

... The Lord in "Témoins de la Croix, Messages de Vie", (J.N.S.R.), 1994, vol. 2, p. 118.

On the heights of Golgotha, on this sacred mountain, I gave My Life. My Holy Mother received My Sacred Body in Her arms. She embalmed It with Her kisses and holy tears; gave It to the Holy Sepulchre, the Glorious Body of God resurrected on the third day. Today, it is through My Glorious Cross that God announces the Glorious Return of the Son of Man. ... The Lord in "Témoins de la Croix...", (J.N.S.R.), vol. 2, p. 84.

I, your Lord, will raise My Cross, to show you that God does not forget what He promised; that He always keeps His promises as though they were already done.

You will see it, this Cross of Light, sign of My Resurrection and eternal Glory. And God will call to His Cross all those who have doubted, denied or blasphemed God, despite how much God has loved them.

Thus, the Word of God will be accomplished:

"They come to Me, repentant, asking My forgiveness and My benediction".

They will strike their breasts, they will come in the thousands to climb up to My Cross, which will draw them like a magnet right into My Light, for My Glorious Cross is Jesus Resurrected.

I will call each nation by its name.

Before My Glorious Sign, each will lower their forehead to the ground to receive My pardon and My triple blessing. They will return like young children who have seen their Father for the first time, carrying in their hearts My Love,

My Peace, My Joy.

... The Lord in "Témoins de la Croix...", p. 103.

Look at Man. He is like he was on the day he was created. I draw him out of the earth, I breathe My Spirit into him, his eyes open to the Light, he comes to meet Me and he walks with Me towards his resurrection.

By My resurrection, he is on the way to his resurrection. I say to him: "Come!", and he comes! I pulled you out of the mire of sin where you were stuck, and you owe the glory of your resurrection to My Cross.

... The Lord in "ABBA, Père", Éditions Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1994, p. 112.

"Resurrection and Spirit of Truth"

Men of The Lie will no longer be able to contend with My Triumphant Truth. They will fall down in tatters. I will come and raise up those whose faith is nearly dead, the doubters and those who led their brothers along false paths and now repent. They will see Me as a lightning bolt piercing the darkness of their night, prying open their minds with the light of My Holy Truth.

In My Divine Knowledge, they will have a new baptism, their final baptism, purified by the Fire of My Love.

This baptism is the final one I will give them because, when they are reborn in this Pool of Love, they will be riveted forever to My Holy Cross and their resurrection will be welded to Mine.

Oh, My children, I will perform grander miracles of the spirit than ever before to this day. Everyone will experience these miracles, and deeply feel their effects before I, your Lord and God, perform the great miracle of the resurrection of the flesh, of all dead flesh.

They will be witnesses, you will be witnesses to the divine redemption of all the Earth, united to the Redemption of its God, the Only Redeemer, the Master of the Universe and the One, True God. I will unite with all of you.

Unbelievers will see Me in their souls, for I will become a clear Sign engraved upon the soul of every one of them, in the same way as a sickness fastens on to a body. Yes, I will unsettle their indifference, I will completely upset them with questions, even accusing questions, to bring them to Forgiveness.

They will fall to their knees, their eyes will open. They will see Me.
And My Light, far from blinding them, will be their remedy.
In My kiss of Forgiveness,
they will contemplate Me.
Because every eye will see Me.
Here is the Redeemer ! Amen.

... The Lord in "Témoins de la Croix, Messages de Vie", (J.N.S.R.), Paris, 1994, vol. 2, pp. 217-218.

You are approaching the End of Times, and it will be brought to a close by the Mystery of Redemption, the era of the Son.

Just as the era of the Holy Spirit will be opened by the Mystery of the Redemption.

I want to end Time with the apotheosis of the Redemption.

I want to begin a new Time, the era of The Holy Spirit, with the apotheosis of the Redemption.

These two Times will really be only one, and you should have no difficulty in passing from one to the other because, as Time is brought to a close by the triumph of the Redemption, so it will open with the triumph of the Holy Spirit.

Thus, the passage from one Time to the other will always be the Triumph of the Cross, for the Redemption will be the link between the two.

As I end Time, I will begin another Time, so that, for you, time will continue, but you will notice it by the changes that will come about.

Yes, you will be let into the era of Great Mercy by the Redemption. (On December 1983)

When God Gives A Clue

The Immaculate Virgin will continue to come to Earth until this Time ends.

Her definitive absence from the present sites of her apparitions will be the sign of the End of Time. No seer will be able to see Her anymore.

Then God will make Himself heard, and His Voice will make the mountains shake, for when God announces Himself, the whole Earth will have become like a corpse in its shroud. The Voice That Awakens, and that Voice alone, will say to the Earth, as it did to Lazarus:

"Earth, Come out !"

Then, completely changed, the Earth will awaken, and God will command it to come up to him. And, removing its own bandages, in which it had been bound up hand and foot, like a corpse, godless and lifeless, so that it could not move, the Earth will say: "Here I am, Lord." It will return to life, this will be its Resurrection, its final and total Redemption.

Go, my child, Time is waiting, for God's plan is before your eyes. And soon, you will all understand that in order for your Earth to live again in Peace, Love and Joy, you must, each of you, become Love, Peace and Joy in the Lord.

Jesus of Nazareth, the Lord, is coming back. Amen.

The Glorious Cross and the Wounds of Christ the Saviour

Extracts from a document entitled: "Jesus Crucified and Resurrected, the Salvation of the World".

(Revelations made to an anonymous Italian messenger in 1964)*

This century began with the consecration of the world to my Heart ¹. At its midpoint, the world was consecrated to my Mother's Holy Heart ². Now, as it ends, the nations will enter my Sacred Wounds, the open Gateway of my Kingdom, by the consecration of humanity to all my Sacred Wounds and to the Immaculate and Sorrowful Heart of my Mother.

... The Lord (p. 36).

Then my glorious Wounds will appear in the heavens to judge the world. Live every day with my Passion before your mind, for, as my presence grows stronger, your cooperation is needed. That is why, with greater generosity than ever before, I give you my Mother, and I entrust you to her Heart. That is why my cry of Mercy: "Father, forgive them; they do not know what they are doing", echoes ever more loudly around the world.

... The Lord (p. 39).

The Father has chosen Turin, where the Holy Shroud is kept, as the starting point for the great Ostension of Jesus Crucified to the world ³, by which many, especially the young from all parts of the Earth, must be brought into contact with the great truths of the faith, in the unity and simplicity of the Wounds of my divine Son. (Ostension = the action of elevating and showing).

... The Virgin Mary (p. 34).

The plan of salvation willed by my Father is that Angels and Men should recognize the Divinity in my suffering humanity and unite with it by the offering and adoration of my Wounds. You are the partners of the angels; join with them and do the Father's will on earth as they are doing it in Heaven, to prepare my next Coming in glory. The Father asks you who are flesh to make an Ostension of the Crucifix everywhere, showing forth my painful wounds, so that every man may come face to face with them and become acquainted with them in the time of my Mercy, before the time of Justice. My Wounds are the Gateway of the Kingdom. ... The Lord (p. 20).

¹ The consecration of the human race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by Pope Leo XIII, 11 June 1899, in preparation for the Jubilee Year 1900.

² The consecration of the Blessed Virgin Mary as "Queen of the World" by Pope Pius XII in 1954.

³ Beginning in Turin, the Glorious Cross will tour the world to be elevated before all men, so that they may see the One they have transpierced.

I asked my Apostles to evangelize all nations, baptising them with water, one by one. Now my Father insists that my Companions enflame all the nations with the fire of my love, by the daily adoration and offering of my Sacred Wounds. All who have received the grace of knowing that my Sacred Wounds are the salvation of the world must be determined to spread this devotion; my Father will call them to account.

... The Lord (p. 24).

Once a soul understands the meaning of the Offering and celebrates it daily, I hold that soul in the net of my love, I lead it to adore my Wounds, to frequent the sacraments and to be zealous in good works. Instil in souls the practice of Offering my Wounds and I will see to the rest. When you offer my wounds to heal those of your own souls, the wounds of your souls are truly healed, the attraction of sin fades, and your souls are purified and strengthened.

... The Lord (p. 33).

By making the Ostension of my crucified body worldwide, and by propagating the Offering of my Sacred Wounds, my Companions will be sweeping the globe with a fresh wind, and the face of the Earth will be renewed.

... The Lord (p. 21).

Companions will come forth from religions of every kind, even non-christian religions. After living without religion or morals, even those farthest removed from religious considerations will learn to draw near, little by little, to the Cross of my Son and, provided they meditate on the Passion of Jesus and contemplate his Sacred Wounds, the prophecy of his merciful Heart, the Heart that came to save what was lost, will be fulfilled: "When I am lifted up on the Cross, I shall draw all men to myself".

The Crucifix will be their book, my sorrowful and immaculate Heart will be their Guide. In their innermost selves, the Companions will know that there can be no death for those who breathe their last in his Wounds, for they are the Gates of Heaven. ... The Virgin Mary (p. 44).

A renewal of doctrine, apostolic fervour and liturgy will come about through the adoration, understanding and offering of my Wounds. Everything will become clearer, purer, richer and simpler. Christians will be united, the whole world will be renewed, and it will proclaim that it owes its salvation to my divine Wounds, through the intercession of my Holy Mother. ... The Lord (p. 15).

The offering of my Sacred Wounds to my Eternal Father will penetrate into the farthest reaches of atheism. Here, there and everywhere, it will prepare souls to receive the fulness of grace flowing from my Wounds through the Church, this Church founded on Peter, with which I will remain till the end of time. ... The Lord (p. 17).

I have performed miracles to prove the Divinity of my Son. I will perform miracles to build up devotion to His Wounds in the world. There is a superabundance of grace in Heaven that is waiting to be poured out upon the Earth, if only you will ask for it through the Wounds of my crucified Son. Ask for it ! Ask again ! Insist ! Beg ! Even temporal favours will be granted, because they are, for some, the way to the light! ... The Eternal Father (p. 26).

The time has come for me to fight my last, most decisive and greatest battle. Consequently, my Father is making a final appeal to all soldiers to renew themselves in my Wounds. In past times, I have let a number of Founders of religious orders and other groups dedicated to my Passion know that they would play a major role in the Church, especially at the end of time. Let them now be aware that I am counting on them to prepare themselves more fervently in order to become my shock troops, and that they must keep their gaze unflinchingly on me, Jesus Crucified, their standard ! I wish them to unite with the sorrowful and immaculate Heart of my Mother, and to learn to make better use of the Offering, realizing that this is the gunpowder with which all their weapons must be loaded.

My army must become aware of itself, and renew itself in my Passion.

My arms are the arms of peace, my soldiers are warriors of Love. The entry of the nations into my Kingdom will be my victory.

Your physical and moral sufferings will ensure the triumph of my Wounds. I am not speaking to you in allegories. Let each and every one undertake to work, suffer and fight like any soldier in an earthly battle. This is a general call to arms.

... The Lord Jesus (p. 46).

The Jubilee and the Glorious Cross : Easter 2000

I am your Redeemer. My Blood has lubricated all the locks and hinges that sealed up the Gate of Heaven. At a single knock from My Cross, still warm from My Body, the Gate gave away, swinging wide to let in all the souls of the Just who were, who are, or who ever will be My followers.

These days, people everywhere bewail the working out of their own Redemption in their sick and sin-ravaged bodies; leaden bodies impervious to the light. Their souls are like prisoners set free from their prison cells but still in chains. No one seems to understand that the Gate has been opened once and for all by My Sufferings for love of you, and that the only way for each of you to enter through it is to join your sufferings to Mine.

(J.N.S.R. , Witnesses of the Cross, Résiac, France, 1997, vol. 4, p. 353)

I show My Cross to all of you, not because I wish to frighten you into loving Me, but because I love you. When I make My Cross appear, shining bright with My Holy Glory, I will stand before you transfigured; just as Peter, James and John saw Me, and you, too, will be astonished, will be drawn to Me. Now, tell Me: Would you like us to put up a few tents, or would you, rather, come into the shelter of My Saving Cross ? For then you will hear the Father's Voice :

« This is My Son, the Beloved,
Who has come to save you. Come to Him. »

« Lord, to whom shall we go ?
You alone have the Message of Life, indeed, of Eternal Life. Amen »

The Glorious Cross will absolve from all sin, amen,
for it is the Golden Gate of the Eternal Kingdom of Glory.

Amen

(J.N.S.R. , Témoins de la Croix, Résiac, France, 1997, vol. 4, p. 258)

Borne like gentle, airy snowflakes on the breath of the wind, guided by the One Who is Spirit, Fire and Light, you will pass through the last gate of all :

The sacred gate of My Glorious Cross.

This whirlwind of Love will help you to pass through the last gate, the one that opens into the Kingdom so longed for the dearly loved children of My Sacred Heart and of My Holy Cross, the children of Abraham and the children of Mary, all united by love triumphant, the Love that saves.

Do not reject My Call. Do not put off, any longer, your decision to come to Me, for, I tell you truly, even your stubbornness will not delay the coming of My Reign of Love.

(J.N.S.R. , Témoins de la Croix, Résiac, France, 1997, vol. 4, p. 155)

My blessed and sacred Gate will open, Time is coming to an end. At God's decision, the gate will open like the Red Sea, to let through all the children of the New Kingdom. Jesus is returning. The New Jerusalem is there. Sing to My Glory.

Make way for My Jubilee, it is the Golden Gate opening for the Parousia.

When you pass through this gate, you will no longer be in the realm of time, time still tormented by Evil. That time will cease to exist. I will erase every trace of it from your memory.

You will hear My Father calling out to you in a very loud Voice :

« Listen, now, to the Voice of My Beloved Son. He is the Love I give you to take you through this final Passage to the Promised Land, the New Jerusalem.

He comes to open the Way.

He is the Passover Meal, to be eaten on your knees, your head bowed down to the ground, for He is there before you, shining with His Holy Glory, His Face resplendent with Glory; no one is worthy to look upon His Holy Face. He is clothed in the Glory of the Most High, for He alone has received from the Father the power to open the Book of Life : to judge the Living and the Dead. He alone is worthy to speak to His Father in the name of each and every one of the children of Earth.

That is why, in My Infinite Mercy, I give you My Beloved Son. He is the Resurrection and the Life, the Love that transfigures those who can forgive, those who beg forgiveness, those who love and those who let themselves be loved. »

(J.N.S.R. , Témoins de la Croix, Résiac, France, 1997, vol. 4, p. 156)

This century will not pass away before the world recognizes the evil it has done.

Interventions Of The Virgin Mary: Her role

My return is imminent and I am giving you constant signs to prepare you. Love is on the path of return, I am on My way back to you. Tell Me, when a king enters into a city, will there be no preparations to receive him? The whole city will be in turmoil and the king will send before him his elect and his imperial court to prepare a way for him and make his paths straight. He will send his messengers to announce his coming; he will ask them to shout with a loud voice: "Here is your King, your King is coming with His Heart in His Hand to offer It to you! Mercy now leans down from heaven and from His Throne, He has taken pity on you." This is why, before My Return, I am sending you before Me, the Arch of Alliance, I am sending you the Woman of the Apocalypse, the second Eve, who will crush the serpent's head with her heel; I am sending you before Me My Mother, to open a broad highway and level it in this desert; I am sending you the Queen of Heaven, the Door to Heaven to prepare you and to school all you who still lie in the dust, to come forward and make your peace with Me, your King, before My Great Return; I am sending you the Queen of Peace to thresh from one corner of the earth to the other and gather you one by one...
... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, p. 235.

Mary kept everything in Her Heart during Her earthly life, but now, Mary's Heart is open, and it is overflowing with ardour and love. She comes to speak to you about God. She comes to remind you of the suffering of Her Son. She comes to take you away from the Evil one's influence. She comes to prepare My Second Coming.

... The Lord in "J'ai Soif !", Lucie, Éditions Téqui, Diffusion La Colombe, Paris, 1993, p. 183.

As a mother through the gift of My Cross, She comes to make My Cross triumphant.

Thus I give Her first place in the message of My Cross. You can do nothing without Her, for it is through Her that My children of the Light and Truth will be assembled and She is the one who will crush the head of the serpent.

... The Lord in "J'ai soif !", Lucie, pp. 83-84.

Mary is your road to Glory. Follow the path of Her Heart. With Her, you will pass through joy and pain; with Her, you will share in My Glory.

... The Lord in "J'ai soif !", Lucie, p. 85.

I was chosen by the Most Holy Trinity to become the Mother of the Second Advent, and thus my motherly task is that of preparing the Church and all humanity to receive Jesus, who is returning to you in glory. This second coming of his will take place in the light of his divinity, because Jesus will return to you on the clouds of heaven, in the splendor of his royalty and will make subject to Himself the peoples and the nations of the earth and all his enemies will be crushed under the throne of his universal dominion.

Thus my maternal action, in these last times, is being exercised in a manner which is open and increasingly stronger, and my light is becoming bright in every part of the earth. For this reason, I am manifesting myself today everywhere by means of my numerous apparitions and of my extraordinary manifestations.

My reign of love, which I am establishing in hearts and souls, is the way which prepares the glorious reign of Christ. The triumph of my Immaculate Heart will coincide with the second coming of Jesus in glory, to make all things new.

And so listen, one and all, to my voice and hasten after the immaculate light of my virginal beauty, to the encounter with the divine splendor of Christ.

Open your hearts to hope. The second coming of Christ is near at hand. The signs that He himself has given you, to prepare yourselves to receive Him, in these times of yours, are all on the point of being realized.

Open your hearts to hope. Live in peace of heart and in prayer. Live in faith and in joy. Live in grace and in purity. Live in love and in holiness. Because Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, our Savior and our King, is about to come to you in the splendor of his glorified Body.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons". The Marian Movement of Priests, St. Francis, Maine, 14th Edition, 1993, p. 710.

And when the Lord comes on the clouds with great power to establish His glorious reign, be ready to come to meet Him with confidence, love and faith.

And it is precisely through Me, who am His Mother, that He comes to you. As Jesus borrowed My virginal womb to transmit to you the will of God, so will He use My Immaculate Heart to return to you as King.

Oh my children, all over the world! Come back to Me, open up your hearts and relight the fire that has gone out. Join together, all of you, and put My messages into practice. They are based on love.

Transmit them to the entire world with hope and fervour. They will become a balm to wash and dry the bloody wounds of the Lord when, thanks to the prayers welling up from the deep love of little souls, they are put into practice.

If, without denying My maternal love, you put them into practice, My Immaculate Heart will overcome the threat of a new war, a terrifying war, so that love and peace will come upon the entire world.

Even in the midst of the deepest darkness, I will spread My shining mantle on all the souls who heed My words, and I will save them by hiding them in the safe refuge of My Immaculate Heart.

On the other hand, those souls who refuse My words will be thrown into a roaring sea of fire. So be confident and commit yourselves entirely to My Immaculate Heart, for I am the Mother of Peace.

... The Virgin Mary in "Marie pourquoi pleures-tu? Faits et messages de Naju-Corée du Sud", R. Spies et L. Couëtte, Éd. du Parvis, Suisse, 1991, pp. 95-96.

Recently, Jesus said to me: "Rejoice! Pray and be confident. On My Immaculate Mother's order, the earth will bow down before God. Sin will be erased. The doors of Hell will close and blood will no longer flow. The joy of life renewed will be shared by Heaven and earth. Humanity will live amid manifestations of love, adoration and praise of God".

- And when will this come to be, my Jesus?

- The grace that was promised you is very near!

- How can that be, since mankind shows no will to improve?

-What you, your country and the Holy Church have lost through your sins, My children, you will obtain through the merits of My Immaculate Mother. In spite of disasters of every kind, My Mother's might, which I gave Her, will triumph over all Her enemies. Victory will be Hers even if all Hell breaks loose. What My Mother accomplishes as Queen will be according to the order preordained by the Blessed Trinity when the earth was created, for I have clothed Her with the strength of My Divine Power, and each of the three Divine Persons has blessed Her.

My presence in your midst must now become more and more powerful, continuous and extraordinary. With it, I want to announce to you that you must lift up your heads from the heavy yoke of the great tribulation through which you are living, because your deliverance is at hand.

Then I had a vision, and the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared. I saw, in a world of darkness, an untold number of people. Then, as though an earthquake was happening, I saw the earth starting to shake and toss about like a sailboat in a storm. And here and there, one could see jets of flame. People were falling in all directions, some even falling backwards, head first, and their screams rose as though they would pierce the heavens.

"Oh My God, Oh My Lord! Be merciful to these poor sinners. Save those who invoke you", I cried through my tears.

While many nations were tearfully repenting and anxiously searching for God, a brilliant light suddenly appeared in the Heavens. It was the Blessed Virgin Mary, our beautiful Mother, the Woman of Light appearing above the people. On Her Head She wore a diadem of 12 bright stars; She wore a white gown with a blue mantle bordered in sparkling gold. She held an ivory-white Rosary in Her right hand and a brown scapular in Her left hand. Her beauty was indescribable.

- The Blessed Virgin: "You will be saved if you live with the Bread from Heaven and follow Me who am your Mother, but not if you live according to the flesh."

-Julia: "The Virgin had scarcely spoken when a white, luminous Cross appeared above Her, which then became a Host. And while the world plunged in darkness was illuminated by a great light, the quaking of the earth ceased."

And Jesus continued: "My children, in Hungary also, you will be able to see the solemn coming of My Immaculate Mother. I want My children to know it. Be ready for My Holy Mother's coming. Welcome Her joyously! Acclaim Her with ardent love! Hail Her entry with a Hosanna! Garland Her road with Hail Marys and offerings of expiation!

I will make prodigies before many.

And before that time which has been given to you for your conversion had come to an end, you will already be able to see the signs of triumph of the merciful love of Jesus in the first extraordinary interventions of the Immaculate Heart of your heavenly Mother.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 14th Edition, 1993, p. 592.

Understand why I am sending My Son and your Holy Mother to patrol the world in your days. This is My Blessing sweeping across the face of the whole world. So raise all of you your eyes and when you do, you will see Heaven wide open and, gleaming in all its glory, the Ark of My Covenant, the symbol of My Presence among you; the symbol of My Mercy and of My Salvation, the One who shows pity towards all of you.

... The Heavenly Father to Vassula, vol. 4, J. M. J. Publications, Northern Ireland, 1994, p. 28.

I am the Woman clothed with the sun.

I am the great sign which appears in heaven.

Today you are calling to mind my last apparition, which took place in Fatima in the Cova da Iria, and which was confirmed by the miracle of the sun. This miracle shows you, in an extraordinary way, that I am the Woman clothed with the sun. This miracle invites you to look to Me as the great sign which appears in the heavens. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's...", p. 745.

Once again, My son, I confirm the hour of purification, after which there will be a new Heaven, a new Earth and a new Church. The decisive intervention of My Mother, Queen of Victory, will be obvious to all, and so will My Glory and Power, I, who am true God and true Man. A new era in the history of mankind will have begun. ... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres...", p. 262.

Now that the great trial has come, you will feel me in an extraordinary way, close to you all, that I may be the great sign of consolation and certain hope, in these last times of the purification and of the great tribulation.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 1993 Supplement, p. 832.

Jesus said: "The world has become steeped in perversion and the deeper it sinks, the further it draws away from Me. But despite everything, it cannot escape my love. I extend my hands, a gesture both of chastisement and of mercy. For those who love Me, My extended hands signify My mercy, but for unbelievers, they are there to chastise. When I speak, it is the voice of the One who is above all that you hear. When I hold My hand out to you, you see My Mother appear at the same time, so that you may escape the chastisement. My Mother's power is such that She can stop the land-slide, hold back the flooding waters and reduce to silence the raging sea. It is She who will help you!" ... The Lord in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Sister Marie-Nathalie, Éd. du Parvis, 1990, p. 155.

As once, on the road to Calvary, meeting My Mother was a great comfort to Me; so now, I tell you: do not fear to meet My Most Holy Mother! She will be your great comfort. ... The Lord in "J'ai Soif !", Lucie, Éditions Téqui, Paris, 1993, pp. 229-230.

The spiritual cenacle of my Immaculate Heart is the refuge into which you all must enter in order to receive the gift of the Second Pentecost. Thus, with the powerful weapon of the holy rosary, you will be able to attain again today my greatest victory in the history of the Church and for all humanity. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's ...", pp. 704-705.

I am asking you to multiply everywhere the cenacles of prayer, with the recitation of the holy rosary, meditation on my word, and your consecration to My Immaculate Heart.

With these, you make it possible for your heavenly Mother to take action in binding Satan, so that I may thus carry out My mission of crushing his head, that is to say, of defeating him once and for all, shutting him up in his abyss of fire and brimstone.

The humble and fragile cord of the holy Rosary forms the strong chain with which I will take as my prisoner the dark ruler of the world, the enemy of God and of his faithful servants. Thus the pride of Satan will once again be defeated by the power of the little, the humble and the poor. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 14th Edition, 1993, p. 788.

Come to me and take refuge in My Immaculate Heart. It is the Ark of the Covenant and it holds an inexhaustible fountain of graces, which I will pour out upon you. God has permitted My Heart to gather them in order to distribute them to mankind. With them, I will make you poor in spirit and possessions, meek, peaceful, merciful, able to cry over your sins, to hunger and thirst for justice and, especially, to have a clean heart.

Those who come to My Heart will be journeying towards salvation, but woe to those who refuse to observe the laws of Christ; they will be burned up like dry straw. Happy are those who observe these laws; they will see the Sun, and in the Sun they will find the rays of eternal salvation. Sow good seed, My children, you will reap what you have sown.

... The Virgin Mary in "Apparitions et Messages à l'Escorial en Espagne (1987-1992)", Résiac, p. 81.

Soon, your Holy Mother will topple Satan's throne to the ground and crush the Serpent's head. Loss of children and widowhood at once will end. The dragon will be handed over to his fate and the world will have a period of peace. The Mother of all humanity will prevail in the end and I, the Lord your God, will triumph in every nation, in every heart and in every race. ... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, Notebook 62, vol. 3, p. 49.

From my Immaculate Heart, peace will come to you!

At the moment when everything will seem lost, it is then that you will see the extraordinary prodigy of the Woman clothed in the sun, who will manifest Herself in all her power.

The darkness will be conquered by a light which will cover the whole world; the cold of hatred, by the fire of love; the great rebellion against God, by a universal return to His merciful fatherly love. [...]

More quickly than you yourselves could think, there will come to you the reign of love and of peace of My Son Jesus, to whom alone is due honour and power and glory for ever and ever. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's..." p. 336.

The Chastisements

No other century has seen so much moral and physical misery as this one, for evil has been increasing for 200 years without stop. Thus, after so many calamities, you are on the brink of a catastrophe that will involve all of human society. If God in his power and wisdom did not put an end to it, the whole human race would be destroyed by the cruel weapons invented by man. Not only would men destroy themselves, but they would cause terrible destruction to the whole universe, to all that creation which a loving God made for the welfare and happiness of my children. They want to destroy it all ! Hell and its cohorts are still playing their old games.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérisinen- Apparitions en Bretagne", Nouvelles Éditions Latines, 1968, p. 151.

Humanity will know the bloody hour of its chastisement: it will be stricken with the scourge of epidemics, of hunger and of fire; much blood will be spilt upon your roads; war will spread everywhere, bringing down upon the world incommensurable devastation. ... The great trial has arrived for all humanity. The chastisement predicted by Me at Fatima and contained in that part of the secret which has not yet been revealed, is about to take place. The great moment of divine justice and of mercy has come upon the world. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 708.

My son, the struggle waged by the Prince of Darkness, by following a materialistic conception of life, has led not only the Church, but all of humanity into a blind alley. This can only result in the greatest tragedy in human history. It is, I repeat, a tragedy without precedent. What a paradox, and how absurd, that men should walk so lightly towards such an enormous catastrophe. [...]

Son, it is mankind itself which will destroy this materialistic civilization and material things with its own hands, unaware that the true civilization is not the material one but that of the immortal spirit. I will not be the one to blame for the collapse of their repugnant pagan civilization, which is leading them to extreme ruin, brutal violence, and the glorifying of crime, as when the legalization of abortions is presented as a social conquest. It is not to Me, My son, it is not to Me but only to their lack of conscience that we will owe this terrible time of purification. ... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Parvis, Suisse, 1992, p. 255.

All this will come to be with a degree of violence never before seen on earth. Fire and water will arrive like steam rollers; then winds, earthquakes, floods, hunger and thirst will complete the work of purification on a humanity that has prostituted itself like a sinful woman.

Mankind has said "no" to My repeated appeals to repentance and conversion; it has said "no" to Love and Truth, to God's Mercy and Patience; it has said "no" to the many interventions of the Heavenly Mother of all, blocking every road to salvation.

And so, it will experience Divine Justice.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus...", p. 271.

The world, but especially Europe, will become ablaze in a time without precedent. ... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 30.

The origin of your woes is, therefore, your refusal to acknowledge God's sovereignty. See these nations abandoned by God, ready to kill each other by wars of extermination, ready to cut each other's throats and cover the world in blood and ruin! But God has come back armed, striking and purifying, pouring on the world the cup of His wrath. And the world will be obliged to drink this cup to the dregs because of the innumerable crimes which offend the Triune God. That is why I cry out to sinners: do penance; and, to the just: be patient and have trust.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérisinen - Apparitions en Bretagne ", pp. 137, 139.

For more than a century, we have been repeating the same messages, the same warnings: return to God or there will be serious chastisements.

These are very grave times. You are at a tragic and decisive turning-point in history. In this hectic and feverish world, a combat between light and darkness is being played out. So many souls are trapped in the satanic nets, deadly nets cast over the whole world. And so, God's justice is being seen on all sides, because we refuse His mercy.

As a Messenger of peace, I tell you again: "Pray hard, in the state of grace and with confidence. The test will be intense rather than long, and the fire from Heaven will make mankind wise, contrite and humble. A new world will come to be and Jesus will be glorified". ... The Virgin Mary in "Kérisinen-Apparitions en Bretagne", p. 143.

As, in former times, God made the waters of the Flood rise little by little, to give sinners time to repent, so today he is acting out of His infinite Goodness, and, especially, His great Mercy for sinners. He is striking different places one at a time, so that witnesses may be warned, and be prepared, or so that they may avoid or lessen the effects of His Wrath; but the storms will go away only if mankind submits to God, the Gospel and the Church, and is faithful to its teachings and to the reception of the sacraments.

May these purifying calamities lead to your conversion; then you will cease to fear. Otherwise, the very heavens will be cleansed only by greater chastisements. These will be unforeseen, sudden, violent and irresistible, causing a prodigious slaughter of the human race. The final shock, especially, will be horrifying, not so widespread as the Great Flood, but more cruel, for it will be of fire and blood.

God will act in visible ways to overcome rebellious humanity, to crush the godless and to enlighten the rationalists. He will cut out the rotten and gangrenous members of Christian society in order to save the rest of the Mystical Body of His Church. He will avenge the blood of its victims and the just who have been persecuted by the godless. Although so many calamities and chastisements will help to convert a good many souls, there will always be sinners to the end, unrepentant sinners becoming more and more evil and furious under the blows of the justice of God. On these sinners, rooted in their unrepentance, God will suddenly send down His Thunder and crush them all. Then all will know that He is the Master of this world which He created and from which some dare to dismiss Him.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérizinen - Apparitions en Bretagne", pp. 133, 134.

The earth will shiver and shake and every evil built into Towers will collapse into a heap of rubble and be buried in the dust of sin! Above, the Heavens will shake and the foundations of the earth will rock! {Prophetic sentences given by the Lord the 11th of Septembre, 1991, exactly ten years before the events of New York}

Pray that the Father's Hand will not come down in winter. The islands, the sea and the continents will be visited by Me unexpectedly with thunder and by Flame. But a fire from Heaven will fall on the earth and wipe out all signs of human folly. There will not remain standing, throughout all the cities and nations, one stone upon a stone, until the terrible anger of God is appeased.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses...", p. 245.

The cataclysm which will fall on humanity will be such that the topography of the earth will be changed. Humanity will be restructured and the turbid tyranny of Satan will cease. I will lock him up in his damned Hell and he will have been vanquished by My Holy Mother and Her troops.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses...", p. 278.

God is sending great calamities upon the earth; the end of time is approaching. Great earthquakes will strike the earth, strong hurricanes will come, the seas will overflow their banks and destroy great cities. When all that happens, a small number of desolate souls will remain on earth, for the earth will be like a desert. Men will be unable to find either food or drink... but in these circumstances they will cry to God. How far does man's perversity go?

... The Virgin Mary in "Apparitions et Messages à l'Escorial en Espagne (1987-1992)", Résiac, p. 95.

The inability of the men of today to establish peace is caused by their obstinate denial of God. So long as humanity continues to go along the way of rejection of God and of rebellion against his law, you will have no peace. On the contrary, egoism and violence will increase and wars will follow upon wars, ever more cruel and bloody.

As has been many times foreseen, a third world-wide war, which will have the terrible capacity of destroying the greater part of the human race, can take place, if men do not seriously resolve to return to God.

The Lord is ready to pour out upon even your straying and so very threatened generation the floods of his mercy, only on the condition that this generation return with repentance to the arms of its Heavenly Father.

I am no longer able to restrain this poor world from plunging itself to the bottom of the abyss. And this is its greatest punishment, for if it touches the bottom it will destroy itself.

It will indeed be destroyed and consumed by the fire of unbridled egoism and by the hatred which will drive one person against the other. Brother will kill brother; one nation will destroy another in a war of unheard of violence which will claim countless victims. Blood will flow everywhere.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons". 14th Edition, 1993, p. 202.

Nations are at the verge of war, do you understand !? Little one, offer Me your sufferings because there is an anger ready to flame.

The hours are fleeing and a mighty host such as the world has never seen, nor will ever see again, is at hand! Few men will be left; how I shout to break through your deafness! A nation roaring like roar of many waters will flood the world again, with fire and brimstone. I am rich in forgiving, but I hardly hear any cry of repentance. Oh men of little faith! Men of arguments only!

You are in the city that was bathed with the blood of the first Japanese martyrs, and you find yourself in the very place where a terrible weapon, in one single instant, killed

And yet you are only inches from your ruin. When all will be shouting for peace, a new world war could suddenly fall upon you, spreading death and destruction everywhere.

When they will say: "Tranquillity and security", then could begin the very greatest overthrow of peoples and individuals. How much blood I see flowing in all the streets of the world! How many of my poor children I see weeping because of the scourge of fire, famine and terrible destruction!

There will be another war soon, heavy with consequences. France will be invaded and occupied by a Russian army. It is then that the good will suffer at the hands of the godless. [...]

Mankind has reached such a stage of iniquity that one part of the earth will be destroyed; two parts will be razed by fire. Pray, pray, My children, for by praying one does not fall into temptation.

Convert, My children, and repent. Among the two-thirds of humanity that will be slaughtered, woe to the unbelievers, the impure, the Pharisaical hypocrites, the false prophets and those who believe themselves gods! They will all burn like dry wood in the fire! Woe to those who consider themselves just in the eyes of mankind but are, in fact, hypocrites in the eyes of God. Woe to these damned people!

...and now I am telling you that the Heavens soon shall deluge with My Coming upon you. My Fire shall be hurled on this earth to burn up her crimes, I will not restrain My Hand. My Holy Name is daily profaned and My observances are scorned. This is to fulfill the words said in Scripture.

The world is on the brink of the abyss and I can no longer hold it back. I can do all and even what is impossible, but I will not contravene My own laws nor go against My own decrees. I will not violate the freedom of My creatures and will not impose Myself on them. I am God almighty and I forgive only those among My creatures who beg for My pardon. I bless the creatures who obey Me and who do My will, but I curse evil spirits and their cohorts. I desire the conversion of all My creatures and will do everything I can to lead them all away from their evil interests. Men do not realize the gravity of their actions and even if they did understand how terrible they really are, they would still not be converted. It is to avoid an even greater sin on their part that I have not yet manifested Myself and when I do, it will be only to bless, and not to curse.

I shall manifest Myself soon and those who cannot bear My sight will turn their faces away from My glory. They will become petrified because they will hate what they should have loved and they will die of fright when they see their sentence approaching. They will flee before the signs foretelling My coming, and will not see it in the same way as My faithful ones. They will flee, hide and prostrate themselves in the mud of their debauchery, their crimes and their hate, and choke in the muck of their sins. I will come in My glory only after they disappear, because the evil ones will not participate in My Victory.

Then I will say to My angels: "The hour has come to sort out and pull out all who are not Mine: sort out from those who acknowledge Me, all those who have not willed to comply with My Law; sort out from those who allowed and welcomed My Holy Spirit to be their Guide and their Torch, all those who rebelled in their apostasy against Me; sort out from those who are branded on the forehead with the Lamb's Seal, all those with the name of the beast or with the number 666." [...] You are, as I have been saying, living in a time of great mercy and grace. But the Day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all those who have not been sealed with My Name on their forehead will be like stubble in this Day.

I shall send from heaven Columns of My Purifying Fire, I intend to purify you all. Gone will be the days when the dead rejoiced in the presence of the dead. You shall, after this purification, be talking one language, My Own language called Love, Divine Love.

I mean to extinguish all evil and wickedness, this is why in these days, My Veil will be thrown over the sun, the moon and the stars. I will cover the sun with dark clouds and the moon will not be giving you its light. I will dim every luminary in heaven for you and I will cover your countries in darkness so that Babylon will cease intermarrying with sin. She shall then adopt My Law of Love, because her renegades I shall put up in flames.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, p. 175.

What afflicts My Heart so much is the chastisement which will fall on humanity with great rains of fire which will reduce the earth to ashes. All the great works built and admired by man will be destroyed.

It will not be long, my daughter. On a night of great cold shall come such a great catastrophe on mankind as never before seen. [...]

Large pieces will break off the sky and fall to earth, and one-third of the earth will be burnt to a crisp. The great and the small will die together. There will be no time then to lament or repent.

Mankind must consecrate itself to My Immaculate Heart. Those who will have done so will be protected. When, one dark night, this great catastrophe occurs, close the doors and windows; do not be curious to see what is going on. Get on your knees and pray. You will be protected by your Immaculate Mother.

Have blessed candles ready for when the moment arrives. One candle will suffice for the three days, My children. Do not neglect saying the Rosary, say it with much devotion. Take refuge in My Immaculate Heart. It will protect you.

(pp. 60-61)

My children, when this happens, keep the doors and windows shut; don't look back. Even if you think you see your own children at the door, don't open it; it would be terrible.

When you come face to face with this danger, remain confident, for the end and the outcome are near.

If God strikes, it is because He wants to purify and to

The ANTICHRIST:

666, indicated thrice, that is to say, three times, expresses the year 1998, nineteen hundred and ninety-eight. In this period of history, Freemasonry, assisted by its ecclesiastical form, will succeed in its great design: that of setting up an idol to put in the place of Christ and of his Church. A false christ and a false church. Consequently, the statue built in honor of the first beast, to be adored by all the inhabitants of the earth and which will seal with its mark all those who want to buy or sell, is that of the Antichrist! You will thus have arrived at the peak of the purification, of the great tribulation and of the apostasy. The apostasy will be, as of then, generalized because almost all will follow the false christ and the false church. Then the door will be open for the appearance of the man or of the very person of the Antichrist!

This is why, beloved children, I have wanted to enlighten you concerning the pages of the Apocalypse which refer to the times you are living through. This is to prepare you with me, for the most painful and decisive part of the great struggle which is on the point of being fought out between your Heavenly Mother and all the forces of evil which have been let loose.

Take courage! Be strong, My little children. To you befalls the duty, in these difficult years, of remaining faithful to Christ and to his Church, putting up with hostility, struggle and persecution. But you are the precious part of the little flock, which has the task of fighting against, and in the end, of conquering, the powerful force of the Antichrist.

give out great blessings. When He strikes hard, it is because He wants to distribute them rapidly.

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérizinen...", p. 136.

Yes, God, touched by the prayers of the just and the desperate cries of humanity, more dreadful than in the days of the Flood, will intervene miraculously, as He promised. He will be like a justly annoyed mother who, after sharply correcting her insolent child, will kiss it when it responds with repentance and respect. He will give back peace to society and triumph to the Church, a truly miraculous triumph with the complete and unexpected extermination of the last devil's coryphaeus. It will be incomparable, the most wonderful in the Church's history, the like of which has never been seen. An evangelical triumph, based on humility in success, detachment from worldly goods and honours, and especially on genuine love for the Crucified God. These are the things you must see, expect, hasten to bring about, and purchase. How many martyrs purchased them before you! Oh, you who are just, be aware of what a mystery the history of the world is. Live with joy and hope, in anticipation of the promised triumph for which you are striving! As for the godless, they, despite their earthly and passing triumphs, are walking in darkness to their final loss.

May My heavenly messages be a constant source of joy and hope for all those who, by their faith, hope and love, help to bring about this great triumph, which is now so near, the reign of love, together, of the Heart of Jesus and My Immaculate Heart.

Oh, look to the future, not with childish curiosity and ridicule but in a spirit of wise forethought in order to avoid the calamitous events, or at least to palliate them. That is certainly possible. Has My Son not said: "I cannot punish the sinful world if it asks for My Mercy". Remember, God has never ceased to manifest the burning Love of His Heart, which is full of Mercy.

Ah, if the world only wanted to! I would not have ceased to warn it right up to the end. My Heart bleeds at such indifference.

Do you remember Nineveh? They were at the edge of a great disaster but they listened to Jonah, My mouthpiece, and from the highest to the least... all fasted, repented and vowed to change their lives and live holy. "Put yourselves on the roads of long ago. Enquire about the ancient paths". (Jer. 6:16). Seek the Truth, daughter. Happy the man who will follow My advice. Let Me tell you one more thing. I, the anointed One, will engulf you all with My fire and consume you to give your soul a new life. I have little time left now; these Times of Mercy and Grace are almost over. I am not concealing My plans, nor am I hiding My Face. I am revealing as never before My Face and, you, My beloved ones, your duty is to go and spread these Messages of the Second Pentecost and what the Spirit teaches.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 344.

I will relent My Justice only when tremendous reparations have been done. ... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 2.

The time wished by Satan and evil men will be terrible, but the infinite Mercy of My Son will also make it a very beautiful time, for it will announce the coming of the reign of God on earth. The defeat of Satan and his legions will mark the end of the follies of human pride. Atheism, that formidable weapon of Satan, will be erased from the face of the earth. If a great many men are slated to die physically and spiritually, it will only be because they have wished it.

... The Virgin Mary in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres...", p. 79.

Words of Comfort:

- Repent. Face Me your Lord with a pure heart and the shadows on earth will not frighten you, nor will the hour of darkness terrify you. You will feel neither distress nor anguish in this hour of deadly silence. So listen to Me; listen to My words and they will be a consolation to you when this hour of obscurity descends upon My entire creation. [...] I, who am Love, will draw near Me all those who love Me and I will diminish their fear. I will veil them with My love; console them with My Heart and they shall find their shelter in Me.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 1, p. 384.

- I, the Queen of Victory, will protect all those who, heeding my calls, invoke me in the privacy of their homes by the prayer that is dear to me and who, in some way, propagate devotion to and love of the Rosary. I will also protect those who are not ashamed to recite it in public, giving the half-hearted and the weak an example of courageous Christian piety. At the moment of truth, I will watch over all families and persons who have remained faithful. My sons, to propagate the Rosary means to eagerly contribute to God's glory and to the salvation of souls.

... The Virgin Mary in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", p. 79.

- Believe Me, I will again have victory. No one should doubt that I want to give peace to the world, real peace, the peace that excludes all conflict, all violence, all trouble; the peace that brings happiness and delight to the heart.

Help Me to obtain this peace from God by your charity and your prayers. Soon, when historians look for the event that changed the face of the earth, that brought peace and prosperity to it, they will discover that it was not a battle, but a prayer. A prayer offered for the whole world, in the true spirit of Catholicism. It will be the greatest religious event in the history of the modern world. (p. 151)

- Do not forget that grave and desperate times are times of God. When He strikes heavy blows to the world, it is to awaken its faith. Because, in order to set the world free of this great disaster, you need to return to faith, to rediscover your faith, a simple faith. All of you, believe with simplicity, like children and uneducated people do; then, peace will return and charity will reign. (p. 154)

- Oh, love the will of God. Love His Justice no less than His Mercy, for everything about him is adorable. Have peace, trust Him, abandon yourselves like children to His Providence, because all these calamities will save a great number of souls. Would God not overturn the whole world for the salvation of one soul? Has He not created each person for His glory?

... The Virgin Mary in "Kérizinen..." (p. 139)

The Return Of Our Lord

Let your hearts be filled with joy, beloved children, because the second Pasch in glory is being prepared for you. A dark and cold sepulchre molds this poor humanity, which is walking in the darkness of the rejection of God, is worn out by the impetuous wind of the passions, and is slain by sin, by egotism, by hatred and by impurity. It appears that now death alone triumphs in the world.

But have confidence and hope. Christ Risen is alive among you. The living Christ is your great victory. Close at hand is the second Pasch in glory. A little while yet and the door of this immense sepulchre, in which lies all humanity, will be opened. Jesus Christ, surrounded by the choir of Angels, on the clouds of heaven prostrate at his feet to form a royal throne, in the splendor of his divinity, will return to bring humanity to a new life, souls to grace and love, the Church to its highest summit of sanctity; and He will thus restore in the world his reign of glory.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 14th English Edition, 1993, p. 689.

The glorious reign of Christ, which will be established in your midst, with the Second Coming of Jesus in the world, is close at hand. This is His return in glory. This is His glorious return, to establish his reign in your midst and to bring all humanity, redeemed by his Most Precious Blood, back to the state of his new terrestrial paradise.

That which is being prepared is so great that its equal has never existed since the creation of the world. Prepare yourselves with humility, with faith, with intense prayer. Prepare yourselves by gathering together, each and all, in the spiritual cenacle of my Immaculate Heart. Prepare yourselves in silence and in expectation.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 705.

He is your Pasch: the Bridge which makes it possible for you to pass from sin to grace, from death to life, from slavery to freedom. He is your Brother who takes you by the hand and leads you to be true sons of God.

Jesus will return on the royal throne of His glory, to bring to fulfillment that word of His, which was the cause of His condemnation: the clouds of heaven will prostrate themselves as a footstool at His feet, and He will come to restore His reign of grace, of holiness, of love, of justice, and of peace, bringing thus to perfect fulfillment the plan of His redemption.

Live in the expectation of His glorious return and of your imminent liberation.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 771.

You are drawing close to the moment of the glorious return of Christ. And so, do not allow yourselves to be seized with fear, or with sadness, or with vain curiosity, or with useless anxiety.

Live, in My Immaculate Heart, with the simplicity of little ones, each moment of this new Advent, and make yourselves eagerly ready to throw open the doors of men and of nations to Christ who is coming. And open your heart to hopefulness, to welcome with joy the announcement which I am making to you today: the time of his glorious return is in the very act of reaching its fullness.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 1993, p. 672.

My coming will take place at night and the night will be very cold. The stars will no longer gleam in the sky and the earth will be in mourning. A very great proportion of the inhabitants of the earth and the animals will have been destroyed, and the surface of the earth will be but ruin and desolation. Mankind will weep over its folly and the earth will still be shaking due to the violence of the aftershocks. Mankind will be stupefied and desolate at seeing the immensity of the disaster. The earth will be denuded and ruined, and men will realize that they cannot cope with it. The angels and saints will encourage them not to give in to the despair and distress that fills their souls, and men, with supernatural help, will not yield to the temptation to end their lives.

Then I will come in the greatest glory ever to appear in the visible world, and my light will flash like a bolt of lightning from East to West and from North to South. People will rise up and group together because their souls will be seized with admiration. The Cross and the Saviour will appear in the Heavens: the light in which this sight is bathed will eclipse the stars, and the sun will seem a dim spark in comparison to the Divine Light. I will come escorted by the Heavenly Court, and the beauty of My Escort, of a diversity and richness unknown to the dwellers of Earth, will shine in the heavens. My angels and saints will unfold their wings and the sky will be filled with them. They will repair the disasters and make the ruins like new again. They will redress what needs to be redressed and suppress the remains of what should not endure. The stones and walls of homes will be rebuilt and the roof tiles put back into place. The cities and the countryside will be cleansed and the vegetation reseeded and pruned. The earth and all it contains will be made anew as the Master wishes and as He commands. The inhabitants of the earth will be speechless, and so grateful that tears will run down their cheeks and their hands will join in one prayer of praise, deference and wonderment.

A New Earth And New Heavens

On the waves of sufferings never before known to this day, and of prodigies never before accomplished, you will reach the safe haven of new heavens and a new earth. An era of grace, of love and of peace is about to be born from the painful days in which you are living. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our ...", 14th Ed., 1993, p. 314.

This world will not pass away until all the things that are written in Revelation come to be. The human race, after a certain time of purification, leading to its rebirth in grace, will soon enjoy the privileged state our first parents knew in the Garden of Eden. The happiness they were granted there awaits all who are converted and live by the loving rule of the eight beatitudes.

... The Lord in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Sister Marie-Nathalie, Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1990, p. 179.

After the purification, humanity will dwell in beauty and purity, just as was when the Father created the first man.

... The Virgin Mary in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", p. 179.

Yes, after the time of the great suffering, there will be the time of the great rebirth and all will blossom again. Humanity will again be a new garden of life and of beauty and the Church a family enlightened by truth, nourished by grace, consoled by the presence of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will restore His glorious reign. He will dwell with you and you will know the new times, the new era. You will, at last, see a new earth and new heavens.

These are the times of the great mercy. The Father is filled with joy and wills to pour out upon this poor humanity the torrents of His infinite love. The Father wants to mold with His hands a new creation where His divine imprint will be more visible, welcomed and received and His Fatherhood exalted and glorified by all. The breath of this new creation will be the breathing of the love of the Father who will be glorified by all, while there will spread everywhere in an increasingly fuller way, like water which springs from a living and inexhaustible fount, the fullness of His divine love.

And Jesus will reign: Jesus for whom all has been created, Jesus who became incarnate, who became your brother, who lived with you, who suffered and died on the Cross to redeem humanity and bring it to a new creation and so that His reign might gradually be spread in hearts, in souls, in individuals, in families and in all society.

Jesus, who has taught you the prayer to invoke the coming of the reign of God upon earth, will at last see fulfilled this prayer of His, because He will restore His reign. And creation will again be a new garden where Christ will be glorified by all and His divine kingship will be welcomed and exalted. It will be a universal reign of grace, of beauty, of harmony, of communion, of holiness, of justice and of peace.

The great mercy will come to you as a burning fire of love and will be brought by The Holy Spirit, who is given to you by the Father and the Son, so that the Father may see Himself glorified and the Lord Jesus may feel Himself loved by all His brothers.

The Holy Spirit will come down as fire, but in a manner different from His first coming: it will be a fire which will burn and transform everything, which will sanctify and renew the earth from its foundations. It will open hearts to a new reality of life and lead all souls to a fullness of holiness and of grace. You will know a love so great and a sanctity so perfect that it will be such as you had never known before. It is in this that the Spirit will be glorified: in bringing everyone to the greatest love for the Father and for the Son. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", 14th Ed., 1993, pp. 558-560.

By the Spirit of God, the world was punished when it turned away from Him, and this punishment earned humanity God's best gift, Himself. Through the Spirit of God, the world, having been punished, will be renewed, and will be returned to humanity, which will also have been renewed. By the Spirit of God, the renewed world will know the beauty and the marvels of God's love. The Spirit of God will renew not only the face of the earth but also what is under the earth, as well as the inside and outside of everything that lives and moves on the earth. Mankind will no longer know hunger or cold, suffering or death. It will no longer know anger or jealousy, envy, contempt or hatred. It will know peace and the delight of accord, patience and charity. The animals also will be purified, and there will be no more killing, carnage or depredation. Vegetation also will gain from the renewal and will be beautiful and delightful. It will be abundant but not invasive. It will nourish mankind and serve as food for the animals. And God will come among His creation as He did in the Garden of Eden. Then will be accomplished the prophecy of Isaiah (Is. 65: 17-25), and men will know their God. ... The Lord in "Dieu et les hommes", Sister Beghe, Éd. Résiac, 1992, pp. 11-12.

The earth came out of the abyss and has become the jewel of creation. It lost the precious pearl which had been entrusted to it: the Garden of Eden was destroyed rather than being cared for and extended. The earth, however, is destined to find once more what man made it lose, and it will find it again by divine action, because human action has been found wanting. This is how it is for everything, for all time and eternity. God gives, makes anew, and gives over again, and the second gift is greater, more solid, more perfect and durable than the first gift, not because of a divine imperfection, but because of the imperfection of the creatures God allows to share in the unfolding of His works, which He Himself makes anew when the imperfect creature has spoiled everything.

... The Lord in "Dieu et les hommes", p. 91.

The glorious reign of Christ will be above all established in hearts and souls. This is the most precious part of the divine royalty of Jesus. In fact, for this, the Word became man and came to dwell among us (John 1: 14). For this, the Son made Himself obedient to the Father even to death, the death of the Cross (Ph 2: 8). [...]

The glorious reign of Christ will correspond to a general flowering of holiness and purity, of love and justice, of joy and peace. For the hearts of men will be transformed by the powerful force of The Holy Spirit, who will pour Himself out upon them through the miracle of His Second Pentecost.

And souls will be enlightened by the presence of the Most Holy Trinity, who will produce in them an extraordinary unfolding of all the virtues.

The glorious reign of Christ will also be reflected in a new form of life in everyone, because you will be drawn to live only for the glory of the Lord. And the Lord will be glorified when His divine Will will be perfectly accomplished by each one of you. The glorious reign of Christ will coincide, then, with the perfect accomplishment of the Will of God on the part of every one of His creatures, in such a way that, as it is in Heaven, so it will also be on this earth.

But this is not possible unless there first takes place the defeat of Satan, the tempter, the lying spirit, who has ever intervened in the history of mankind in order to lead men to rebellion against the Lord and disobedience to his law (Apoc. 20: 10).

The glorious reign of Christ will be established after the complete defeat of Satan and all the spirits of evil, and the destruction of Satan's diabolical power. Thus he will be bound and cast into Hell, and the gates of the abyss will be shut so that he can no longer get out to harm the world (cf. Apoc. 20, 2-3). And Christ will reign in the world.

The glorious reign of Christ will coincide with the triumph of the Eucharistic reign of Jesus, because in a purified and sanctified world, completely renewed by Love, Jesus will manifest Himself above all in the mystery of His eucharistic presence.

The Eucharist will be the source from which will burst forth all His divine power, and it will become the new sun, which will shed its bright rays in hearts and souls, and then in the life of individuals, families and nations, making of all one single flock, docile and meek, whose sole Shepherd will be Jesus.

Your heavenly Mother is leading you on towards these new heavens and this new earth, a Mother who is gathering you today from every part of the world, to prepare you to receive the Lord who is coming.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's...", Supplement to the 14th Edition, 1993, pp. 841-842.

Christ will restore his glorious reign in the universal triumph of His Eucharistic reign, which will unfold in all its power and will have the capacity to change hearts, souls, individuals, families, society and the very structure of the world.

When He will have restored His Eucharistic reign, Jesus will lead you to take joy in this habitual presence of His, which you will feel in a new and extraordinary way and which will lead you to the experience of a second, renewed and more beautiful earthly paradise. ... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 568.

The new era, which awaits you, corresponds to a particular encounter of love, of light and of life between paradise, where I am in perfect blessedness with the angels and the saints, and earth, where you, my children, live in the midst of many dangers and innumerable tribulations. This is the heavenly Jerusalem, which comes down from Heaven upon earth, to transform it completely and thus to shape the new heavens and the new earth.

The new era, towards which you are journeying, is bringing all creation to the perfect glorification of the Most Holy Trinity. The Father receives His greatest glory from every creature which reflects His light, His love and His Divine Splendor. The Son restores His reign of grace and of holiness, setting free every creature from the slavery of evil and of sin. The Holy Spirit pours out in fullness His holy gifts, leads to the understanding of the whole truth, and renews the face of the earth. [...]

The new era, which is just on the verge of beginning, brings you to a full communion of life with those who have preceded you and who, here in Paradise, enjoy perfect happiness. You contemplate the splendor of the heavenly hierarchies; you communicate with the saints of Paradise; you relieve the purifying sufferings of the souls who are still in Purgatory. You experience, in a strong and visible way, the consoling truth of the Communion of Saints. [...]

This feast of mine (of the Assumption), which bids you to look to your heavenly Mother, elevated into Heaven, thus becomes for you a reason for deep joy and great confidence.

In the midst of the innumerable sufferings of the times through which you are living, you look upon Me as a sign of sure hope and of consolation, because I am the luminous door which opens upon the new era that has been prepared for you by the Most Holy Trinity.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", pp. 738-739.

The light of truth, of fidelity and of unity will once again shine fully in the Church. My Son Jesus will manifest Himself fully in such a way that the Church will become light for all the nations of the earth.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests Our Lady's Beloved Sons", p. 291.

In the Church, purified and completely renewed, there will shine forth in all its great power, the One and only Light of Christ, which will be spread by her in every part of the earth, and thus all nations will run to her, for the perfect glorification of the Most Holy Trinity.

... The Virgin Mary "To The Priests...", p. 797.

When Peace and Love reign on earth and there are but one flock and one Shepherd, Mary will appear under diverse aspects to guide the lives of souls. She, the Queen of Peace, the glorious Lady, will appear as white to the white, black to the black, yellow to the yellow and brown to the brown. Through Jesus Christ, She will spread God's glory as mediatrix, and as such will in Her turn bestow all heavenly gifts. The Sacred Heart of Jesus and Her Heart, perfectly united, will govern the world until the final judgment. Instead of the throne of the godless, there will arise two thrones: that of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and that of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is through these two united Hearts that the world will be saved.

Jesus: "When I was born, I brought Peace into the world, but it has not enjoyed peace. The world must have peace. Men are the children of God. God breathed His own breath into each person. He will not allow Himself to be kept in the background. The children of God must enjoy peace."

... The Lord in "Marie, Reine victorieuse du monde", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1990, pp. 163-164.

It is not the end of the world which is near, but the end of sin, the end of damnation for many souls.

... The Lord in "Marie, Reine du monde", p. 119.

The loss of one soul is more serious than all the wars, epidemics, revolutions and calamities of all times. You cannot understand this easily because you are unable to grasp what is meant by an eternity of torment.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus à ses prêtres et à ses fidèles", Éditions du Parvis, Suisse, 1992, p. 9.

Those who now cling to My Mercy would be right if they did not forget one fundamental thing:

- Is the soul worth more than the body, or not?
- If it is, would it be an act of Mercy to let souls be lost in order to save bodies?

I am not a vengeful God, but the God of infinite and eternal Love; that is why I have loved you from all eternity. I do not desire men's ruin; rather, because I am love, I desire their salvation, their eternal salvation.

... The Lord in "Confidences de Jésus..", p. 135.

I will rise you all with My Word; I shall not be silent until I will Glorify My Body and renew My entire Church. [...] So do not try to muffle down My Voice and My Mother's calls; Our Voices will keep coming upon you like a hammer shattering the rocks until the Day of My Glory.

... Our Lord to Vassula, Notebooks 32-58, vol. 2, p. 19.

Do not say later on, on Judgement Day, "I had never heard, I had not known." Jesus and I are revealing things beforehand, before they happen, so that you cannot say when you meet God face to face, "I was unaware."

... The Virgin Mary in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 2, p. 230.

Today, I am giving everyone a chance to hear plainly My Voice from My Holy dwelling place. My Voice sounds like an echo from Jerusalem and reaches all the inhabitants of the earth. No one can say later on that I have not been warning you. ... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 185.

My Word will descend upon you creation as a Thunderbolt! Woe to the unfaithful! ... Our Lord in "True Life in God", Vassula, vol. 2, p. 310.

...Rebellion shall cease and will come at its end, pierced by My Word, it shall be dead, never to rise again. I mean to deliver you from the hands of the Evil one, fortifying you in My Light. ... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 44.

Ecclesia shall revive by Me! Not by you mankind! I am He who shall lift My Bride.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 183.

- I shall then smile on them and My Light shall penetrate through the hinges of their door and through every keyhole, even below their door My Light shall penetrate!

- Alleluia, glory be to God!

-Yes! Shout little heart for joy, your barren lands will bear fruits! Break into tears of joy, all you who hear Me. With everlasting love I have taken pity on you. Vineyards will grow instead of thorns and briars. I mean to show My Holiness and My Wisdom to efface this era's hostility on My Divinity and their so-called wisdom.

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, pp. 181-182.

The Father's Works will astonish you all !

... Our Lord to Vassula, vol. 2, p. 351.
